GOVERNMENT PLANS 'GOOFBALL' LAWS

OTTAWA (CP) — The government introduced in the Commons today a new measure aimed at controlling drugs commonly known as "goofballs."

The measure, an amendment to the Food and Drugs Act provides for prison sentences from 18 months to 10 years for any person convicted of illegal trafficking in or in possession of such drugs.

Top Prizes to B.C. Yachts In Biggest Swiftsure Race

Thousands Witness Fine Finish

By MONTE ROBERTS

Domination of the Swiftsure ocean race by U.S. boats ended this weekend when Vancouver yachts took both the Swiftsure overall trophy and the City of Victoria trophy for first boat home.

A third Canadian boat, from Victoria, took the B Class Trophy.

It was the first time since 1931 that a Canadian boat had won either major trophy.

The last previous Canadian winner of the Swiftsure trophy was Capt. B. L. Johnson, sailing Westward Ho! in the second race of the series which has been interrupted as an annual event only by war.

Fluky Winds

Showing the way to the field in a race featuring fluky winds was Philip Graham's 65-foot masthead yawl Troubadour, Royal Vancouver Yacht Club.

Skipper Graham coaxed every knot out of winds that ranged from 20 down to zero, and brought his white-hulled craft home shortly after 9.30 p.m. in an elapsed time of 34.31.20.

The Royal Vancouver Yacht Club's BB Class sloop Winsome III, owned by C. L. Rickard and sailed by Bonar Davis, took the coveted Swiftsure Trophy—top prize on a handicap basis—with the corrected time of 28.20.50, and also collected the BB Class Cup.

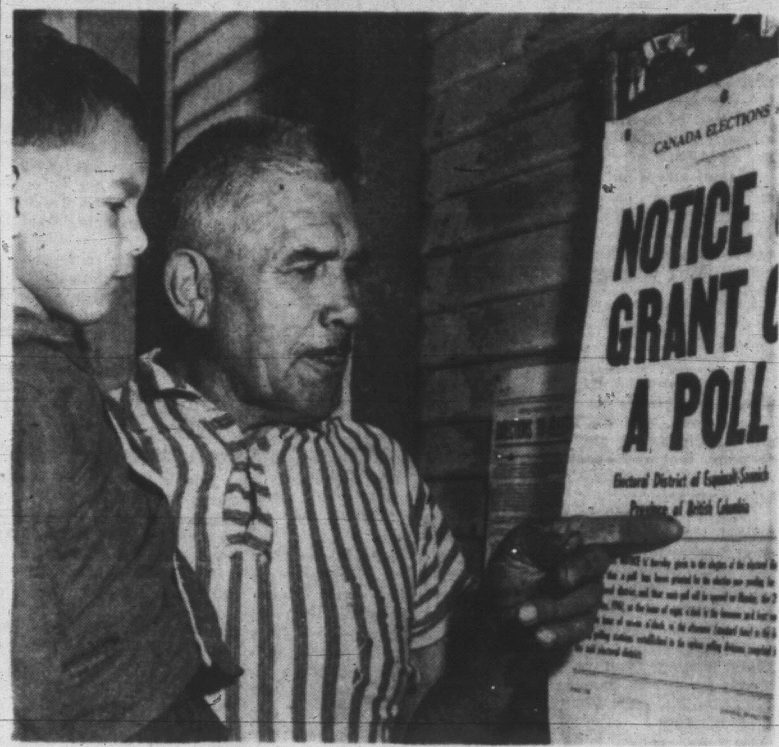

Davis was given a close run for his money by Cmdr. John Reed of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, sailing the 23-foot sloop Jay in the B Class. He was less than 12 minutes off Davis' pace, and had the consolation of collecting the trophy for his class. For a time it was thought Jay Jay was the over-all winner.

Easily Spotted

The AA Class trophy was taken by R. C. Coe's Sea Fever of the Seattle Yacht Club, with a corrected time of 28.38.42. Sea Fever, a light displacement boat easily spotted by her pale hull and high transom stern, has the second largest time allowance in the class.

A class winner was another popular and familiar Swiftsure entry—last year's trophy winner Kate II, sailed by D. E. Skinner, Seattle YC. Skinner and Co. brought their sloop home in the corrected time of 27.00.39, less than 19 minutes behind the Swiftsure Trophy winner.

HISTORIC MOMENT

Chief Thunderbird, Baptiste Paul, 7286 W. Saanich Rd., shows five-year-old son Davey where all Indians can vote in Esquimalt-Saanich by-election today, first time full franchise has been extended in B.C. Polling station is Brentwood Women's Institute Hall. (Photo by Halkett.)

INDIANS SKEPTICAL OF VOTE

Heavy Poll Expected

Good weather—good turnout.

That was the indication in Esquimalt-Saanich this morning as polling stations opened for the federal by-election.

Polls were "fairly busy" according to an official who toured the riding.

Although showers are forecast, they were expected to hold off until late.

FIRST FOR INDIANS

Among the 40,926 eligible voters are several hundred Indians, able to cast ballots here in a federal election for the first time, following amendments to the Elections and Indian acts in March, 1960.

However, response has been slow.

By 11 a.m. four Indians had voted at Saanichton Agricultural Hall, polling station for about 60 on nearby reserves. Chief Thunderbird, Baptiste Paul, of the Tsartlip Band summed up the Indians' reaction to franchise: "They're skeptical."

Because most B.C. Indians never signed a treaty, they have not received the same benefits as those of other provinces. The Native Council of Chiefs wrote to Prime Minister Diefenbaker April 10 asking for a conference in Victoria on Indian rights.

"SMOKE SIGNALS"

"We sent smoke signals to Diefenbaker, but no answer," quipped the chief.

Results of the five-way by-election contest should be known shortly before 10 p.m., says returning officer S. S. Penny.

The 174 polls close at 8 p.m. After a brief flurry at 9 a.m. poll opening, a steady trickle of voters was recorded.

Some of the bigger urban polls, such as Lake Hill Women's Institute Hall on Quadra, were quite busy. Biggest turnout was expected after 5 p.m. when men return from work.

In the last federal general election, 1958, the turnout was 28,710.

PHONE EV 2-3131 ON BYELECTION

Due to the high interest in the Esquimalt-Saanich federal by-election, the Times tonight will provide a telephone service on the results, beginning at 8 p.m. At that hour results will become public in B.C. on the three eastern by-elections. Election laws prevent prior release. The phone number is EV 2-3131.

'Hanging' Law Study Urged By Liberals

OTTAWA (CP)—Three Liberal members of Parliament urged today that the government's capital punishment bill be withdrawn for study by experts.

Lawyer Judy LaMarsh, member for Niagara Falls, said she is no great authority on murder cases but it seemed that a number of gaps exist in the proposed legislation retaining the death penalty by hanging for "capital" murder cases involving deliberate slayings or those involving crimes of violence.

Sentence of life imprisonment is mandatory for "non-capital" murders and juveniles under 18 convicted of capital murder.

J. P. Deschatelets, French-speaking lawyer from Montreal, and lawyer Paul Martin, Essex East, took the same line.

OVER THE LINE AT NIGHTFALL

Thousands watched as Canadian entry Troubadour ghosted home in gathering dusk at end of Swiftsure ocean yacht race shortly after 9.30 p.m. Sunday.

Royal Vancouver Yacht Club entry was first Canadian to win City of Victoria Trophy for first yacht to finish. (See also page 13.)

WELL! WHO KNOWS?

OTTAWA (CP) — Alexis Caron (I.—Hull), an insurance broker, was told by Speaker Roland Michener in the Commons today he should consult a lawyer for an answer to the question he asked Trade Minister Hees, a businessman.

Mr. Caron asked what penalty is provided for anyone who refuses to answer questions in next month's census.

Mr. Hees said if Mr. Caron would indicate what census question he was referring to he might be able to answer the question.

Mr. Caron said he meant any of the questions to be asked in the census.

Mr. Michener said Mr. Caron appeared to be seeking a legal opinion and should consult a lawyer.

Mr. Caron said that if Mr. Hees could not give the answer he was the one who should consult a lawyer.

CONGREGATION SPEAKER:

'Carry On Tradition Of the Liberal Arts'

Victoria College today was urged to carry forward the great tradition of the liberal arts as a vital element of modern life.

The appeal was made by Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, president of the University of Nevada, and keynote speaker at the college's first degree-granting congregation.

He spoke to the audience at the Gordon Head campus' gymnasium which came to witness the college's first graduating class of 33 students receive their degrees on their own campus.

VICTORIAN

Dr. Armstrong, a native Victorian who attended the college as a student, received an honorary doctorate of laws in recognition of his achievements as a university administrator.

He said all persons connected with the college and the community were proud of the institution's coming-of-age represented in the degree-granting ceremony.

"I look back, from the perspective of more than 30 years, upon my two years at Victoria College as the most important and valuable years of my life, because it was here that I first became fully aware of the sovereignty of the realm of intellect," he said.

MORE FORTUNATE

"I count you young men and women who graduate today as even more fortunate, because you have had the experience of four years in this great tradition."

"I hope that you will truly make the most of the intellectual tools, skills and insights which have been given to you here."

"Upon the uses which you

NEGRO STRIKE MOSTLY IGNORED

By HENDERSON GALL

JOHANNESBURG (Reuters)—At least 50 per cent of Johannesburg's 250,000 Negro workers today staged a work boycott but the rest of the nation's Negro work force largely ignored a "stay-at-home" strike call.

The centre of the strike in Johannesburg was the shanty town of Alexandra, which houses about 50,000 Negroes in tin-shack squalor, and the heavily-populated Negro townships in the southwestern part of the city.

The percentage of work absenteeism from these areas was based on information from the Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce which polled employers in the district.

Reports from other parts of the country, however, indicated the anti-government strike appeared to be a failure, with Negro work attendance at near-normal.

Many of the Negro workers formed groups in their districts and carried sticks to protect themselves against strike agitators. They were also provided with a heavy police guard.

The Witwatersrand police chief, Col. John Olivier, described the situation as "almost normal for a Monday."

Rebel General Swoons at Trial

PARIS (Reuters)—Ex-general André Zeller, 63, collapsed twice today while testifying at his trial on charges of leading last month's abortive army coup in Algeria.

He was led away and the session of the court was suspended.

Zeller, one-time French army chief of staff, and former General Maurice Challe went on trial together before a special military court.

Both face possible death sentences if convicted of leading the troop uprising against President de Gaulle's Algerian self-determination program.

Challe, former commander-in-chief of French forces in Algeria, had testified first.

Challe and Zeller are charged with taking over a military command without legitimate reasons and organizing an insurrectional movement.

In his testimony today

Rain Quells B.C. Blazes

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)—All fires were under control in the Prince-George forest district today after a weekend of rain and cool weather.

Half an inch of rain dampened the huge blaze covering 27,000 acres at Stewart Lake, 40 miles west of here, and a 6,000-acre fire at nearby Scott Lake.

Rain also hit the Johnson Creek fire in the Chetwynd area 130 miles north of Prince George.

Four Per Hour

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic deaths averaged more than four an hour at the half-way mark of the extended U.S. Memorial Day weekend today.

By 2 p.m. EDT the traffic death toll stood at 295. There also were 24 accidental deaths from boating, 37 drownings and 57 miscellaneous deaths to put the over-all total at 409.

POLARIS SUBS TO STAY IN HOLY LOCH HARBOR

LONDON (Reuters) — A United States spokesman today denied a newspaper report that U.S. Polaris submarines might be withdrawn from Holy Loch in Scotland because of anti-nuclear demonstrations there.

The report in the London Daily Mail said new Polaris bases were being sought in Norway and the Mediterranean.

Big Fires Rage Out of Control

By The Canadian Press

The worst of hundreds of forest fires ravaging merchantable timber and bush in the four Western provinces are raging out of control today.

Many small blazes were brought under control during the weekend and one of them raged out of control near Melanosa, 75 miles north of Prince Albert.

Flames swept out of control on a two-mile front in the Grassy Lake district, 100 miles northeast of Prince Albert, where 250 men fought a losing battle, using bulldozers and a helicopter.

About 100 men had contained a swamp and brush fire in the Bainbridge area, 175 miles east of Prince Albert, and stood guard over nearby stands of heavy timber.

Another 250 men were fighting a serious timber blaze near Squaw Rapids, about 100 miles east of Prince Albert.

Alberta's largest fire, about 25 miles north of Edson, continued to spread out of control. Destroyed were some 25,000 acres of timber and brush. More than 80 fires burned in Alberta Sunday, with the Edson blaze and a 4,500-acre fire in the Grande Prairie region reported out of control.

SWIFTSURE

62 yachts entered for an all-time record, was marked by one of the finest starts and certainly the most spectacular finishes in the memory of veteran observers.

Fifteen to 20 knot westerlies graced the 11 a.m. Saturday start, and promised to hold as talk went round of an elapsed time record. But by mid-afternoon Juan de Fuca Strait produced what yachtsmen expect: fluky winds that kept boats tacking from shore to shore, trying to balance out tide, currents, back eddies and shifting winds.

In the early afternoon, even the 90-foot navy ketch HMCS Oriole, which needs half a gale to get under way, was well up with Diamond Head, Adios, Maruffa, Kate II, and the other fine-sailing yachts.

But when the winds started fluking, Oriole's luck ran out.

Low point of the race came between 1 and 5 a.m. Sunday, when four-fifths of the fleet drifted aimlessly in flat calm coming up to the Lighthouse. Diamond Head, which had opened up good leads over the field during the day, was first to creep around and held the lead on the way home until Troubadour overtook her on the final tack.

Any dull spots in the 136.2 miles race were more than cancelled out by the driving finish, when more than 30 yachts were bunched within a two square-mile area, fighting to make Race Passage before a forecast five-knot tide made up against them.

The usual finish sees one yacht far ahead of the stragglers, but this year no less than 15 passed between the Race Rocks Lighthouse and Bentinck Island.

Thousands of spectators lined the waterfront, from Saxe Point to St. Charles Terrace, to watch the yachts, each flying a blowing spinnaker, reach the finish line in gathering dusk.

Eleven in B.C. Killed In Weekend Mishaps

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Accidents took the lives of four British Columbians today, bringing the total number of violent deaths to 11 in three days.

Six died in traffic accidents, two by drowning and three in other mishaps.

In accidents reported today, Henry Magnus of Chilliwack was killed when his truck rolled over on the Cariboo Highway; two-year-old Julie Duncan of Bella Coola, was run over by a truck 90 miles east of her home town 300 miles northwest of Vancouver; Henry Lolly, 22, of Fort Babine, 50 miles east of Hazelton, died when his gun went off as he tripped and fell from the porch of his home; and six-year-old Jefferson Brown was drowned when he fell from a small boat at Bella Bella, 60 miles west of Bella Coola.

In Vancouver, police continued their search for the driver of a panel truck who sped away after fatally injuring Walter James McGaughey, 82. He was thrown 90 feet after being struck at an intersection in the south end of the city.

WEARING EQUIPMENT

Victim of the diving mishap was James Errington, 21, of Vancouver, who failed to surface while diving with companions in Howe Sound near Squamish.

At Britannia Beach, 50 miles north of Vancouver, 12-year-old David Karwetski died shortly after he fell 25 feet down a cliff and struck his head on a rock.

Other traffic victims were William Allen, 74, of Vancouver, killed in a car-truck collision near Hope, Kenneth Belker, 23, of Langley, whose car overturned in a ditch, and Stanford Hall, about 60, of Jaffray, who was pinned in the wreckage of his car after colliding with a trailer truck 30 miles east of Cranbrook.

Kin to Late Czar To Visit Russia

LONDON (AP)—Prince Alexander Romanov, great-nephew of the last czar of Russia, left by plane for the Soviet Union today and said he fully expects to use the return half of his plane ticket.

The 31-year-old prince will be the first member of the Romanov family to visit Russia since the Communist revolution.

Prince Alexander, now an executive of a London shipping firm, is paying a two-week visit to the Soviet Union with a party of 29 tourists in a program arranged by the British Institute of Contemporary Art.

SENTENCED TO DEATH —AGAIN

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (CP)—For the second time in six months, Charles Heathman was sentenced to death Saturday for the murder of 11-year-old Vernon newspaper boy Donald Oliver.

A retrial jury took only 52 minutes to return its verdict of guilty at the British Columbia Supreme Court assize here.

Mr. Justice H. W. McInnes sentenced the 30-year-old itinerant laborer to be hanged August 15 for the sex slaying, which took place in a Vernon park, September 2, 1960.

The jury did not recommend mercy.

TRAPPED at the bottom of a 30-foot well for 16 hours, Ralph Burgess, 19-year-old father of two, was hauled up a 36-inch wide shaft by rescuers Saturday. Doctors said he was in good shape despite spending the night in mud up to his waist.

LONDON (AP)—One-year-old Patricia-McCarthy died Friday night shortly after a 13-hour operation separated her from her Siamese twin sister, Mary. The baby girls were joined at the head.

Freedom Rides to Continue As 17 More Go on Trial

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Seventeen more segregation-defying "Freedom Riders" go on trial in city court today amid reports a fifth group would leave soon for Jackson in an attempt to crack the Deep South's segregation barriers.

In Forst Park, Pa., the rider's chief co-ordinator, Marvin Rich of New York, said a bus trip would be made to Jackson from New Orleans today or Tuesday.

Meanwhile, 22 Freedom Riders convicted here in Mississippi's capital city on breach of peace charges last Friday, were transferred today to the county penal farm to work off their $200 fines at the rate of $3 a day. Five others posted bond earlier and were released.

The 17 newly-arrested riders—13 Negroes and four whites—go on trial on the same charges as the other 27.

Four separate groups of riders attempting to desegregate bus terminals through the south have arrived in Jackson since last Wednesday.

ANGLICAN-ROMAN LINK TO BECOME 'CLOSER'

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, in a television interview three days before his retirement as Archbishop of Canterbury, said Sunday night the Church of England will "without any doubt" get closer to the Roman Catholic Church.

"My visit to the Pope—the fact that he received me—didn't just happen out of nothing," said Dr. Fisher. "It was because many on both sides were aware that the old relationship of hostility and division was wrong and that something must be done to put it right."

Dr. Fisher, 74, retires Wednesday to be succeeded by Dr. Arthur Ramsey, 58, now Archbishop of York.

IN PARLIAMENT

New Conference Called On Constitution Change
(From Times News Service)

OTTAWA — Another Dominion-provincial conference is being called to give fresh impetus to the search for a way to amend the Canadian constitution in Canada, Justice Minister Fulton announced Saturday.

He told the Commons the conference will be held in June or September, drawing provincial attorneys-general together for their fourth meeting on the subject since the Diefenbaker government took office.

At the third meeting in January there was close to unanimous agreement on the outline of a formula by which amendments to the British North America Act affecting the joint interest of the Dominion and the provinces could be made in Canada.

Saskatchewan was not happy about the formula but did not oppose it outright.

"We had hoped to be able to conclude our work by correspondence but in my view it has become evident that will not be possible and further impetus must be given," Mr. Fulton said.

Doctors 'Bamboozled' by Drug Makers

Frank Howard (CCF-Skeena) said Canadian "wonder drug" manufacturers spend 25 cents out of every sales dollar in trying to "bamboozle" doctors into remembering their trade names.

Only one cent, he said, is spent on controlling the quality of the drugs for the protection of the public—although the companies say the high cost of the drugs is due to expensive research facilities and services.

Mr. Howard said Canadian pharmaceutical manufacturers, mainly subsidiaries of United States firms, had a profit,

House Could Solve Quebec Divorces

Parliament has the power to solve the problem of divorce petitions from Quebec and Newfoundland Mr. Fulton indicated.

There are "methods" by which Parliament itself can alter the present routine whereby people in Quebec and Newfoundland must seek a parliamentary edict to dissolve their marriages he said.

Mr. Fulton did not indicate to the Commons what the methods might be, although he noted that one approach had already been tried.

H. W. Herridge (CCF—Kootenay West) said the federal government should appoint regional bankruptcy officers to help small businessmen and individual workers protect their rights when their employers go bankrupt. He described cases of timber

Senators Play Pugwash Talks As 'Brainwash'

WASHINGTON (CP) — A staff report by the U.S. Senate internal security subcommittee says the Pugwash conferences which originated in Nova Scotia were designed to weaken the will of Western scientists to resist Soviet aggression.

It charges the conferences of international scientists, supported largely by Canadian-born U.S. industrialist Cyrus Eaton, were initiated by "individuals with significant records of support of Communist causes."

Eaton, who has been strongly critical of U.S. foreign policy, was accused by the subcommittee staff of having made "an almost treasonous attack on American security" by urging Canada to divorce itself from U.S. foreign strategy.

"Canada is a vital link in the chain of our defenses," the report said.

SIX MEETINGS HELD

Eaton offered his Pugwash, N.S., home to the international meetings. Six have been held so far since they were started in 1957—two at Pugwash; one at Lac Beauport, Que.; one near Vienna; another at Baden, Austria; and the sixth at Moscow late last year.

Two of President Kennedy's White House advisers, Dr. W. W. Rostow and Dr. Jerome Wiesner, were delegates to the Moscow meeting. Prominent Canadian scientists have attended the meetings along with others from Britain, France, West Germany, India, Japan, Russia, Poland and other countries.

Eaton has given up financing the meetings which now are being underwritten by the Ford Foundation. The name is being changed to the Conferences of Science and World Affairs. The next meeting is scheduled for Woods Hole, Mass., Sept. 5.

The subcommittee document didn't suggest the Russians had made any great gains in subverting Western scientists although it concluded that some had been subverted.

The report suggests that Western scientists possibly were inadequately trained and experienced in international politics in meeting with their opposite numbers from Russia.

The report, dated into the backgrounds of some persons who helped get up the meetings, including Lord Bertrand Russell of Britain, Dr. Fred Joliot-Curie of France, famed atomic scientist and a self-proclaimed Communist, and Dr. Leopold Infeld, a Polish-born naturalized Canadian citizen who lectures at the University of Toronto and then defected to the Communists in 1950.

At Eaton's office in Cleveland, a spokesman issued a statement saying:

"The Pugwash scientists from America and the Western world, including the top scientific advisors to the U.S. government and Nobel science and peace prize recipients, have proved quite capable of taking care of themselves in international discussions."

JFK Hitting Back At 'Swap' Critics

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy today was reported to be directing an administration attack on critics of the tractor deal to liberate captives of the Cuban invasion attempt.

Former Vice-President Richard Nixon and Republican leaders in Congress have denounced the proposition of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro to exchange 1,200 prisoners taken in the invasion attempt for 500 tractors and bulldozers.

They called it blackmail and criticized Kennedy for helping to organize a committee of citizens to raise the necessary millions and arrange details of the transfer.

There have been signs that Castro may waver on the offer. One administration objective is to put the Cuban leader on the spot.

Kennedy has appealed for contributions to pay for the tractors, which would cost an estimated $15,000,000. But he also has declared the government itself can play no part in the transaction or fund raising.

BIRTHDAY WORKDAY

'Homework' on Summit

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy turned 44 today in the seclusion of his family home on Cape Cod.

He put in more homework on his crucial meetings with French President de Gaulle and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Kennedy boned up on this week's European conferences while anticipating a giant birthday celebration in Boston tonight with personal and political friends.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger reported the chief executive remained at home Sunday except for a drive to mass in the nearby village of Hyannis. He stayed in the beach-front home of his father pouring over documents relating to his sessions with De Gaulle in Paris and Khrushchev in Vienna. The president flies to Paris Tuesday night after Mrs. Kennedy joins him in New York.

Behind the Blockade

WHEN THIS NEWSPAPER said, months ago, that the whole Columbia power scheme was in danger of indefinite delay or total collapse, the provincial government discounted such warnings as absurd. Everything, the government's spokesmen declared, would turn out all right, and anyway, the difficulties of making a deal between Victoria and Ottawa were all the federal government's fault. Mr. Bennett was loyally working for an agreement.

But now we have it from Mr. Howard Green, minister of external affairs, that the Columbia scheme is in grave danger, but not primarily from a financial dispute between the federal and provincial governments. It seems probable that an agreement about costs can finally be worked out between Mr. Bennett and Mr. Fleming (the only federal minister whom Mr. Bennett appears willing to meet). The real stalemate goes much deeper than finance.

As Mr. Green finally stated, in the candor of a recent byelection campaign, Mr. Bennett wants to export wholesale power from the Columbia, the Peace and many other rivers. Mr. Green must have known that long ago, if he reads the newspapers, but presumably he did not wish to attack Mr. Bennett so long as there was any hope of an agreement with him. His patience worn thin, Mr. Green at last identified the crux of the trouble. It is simply that federal policy is opposed to exports and Mr. Bennett insists on making them as part of a Columbia deal with Ottawa.

There was nothing in Mr. Green's statement here to suggest that the federal government was ready to abandon its long-standing prohibition on exports. Like his predecessors of the last 40 years, the minister of external affairs evidently believes that hydroelectricity should be preserved for future Canadian use and not sold to a foreign nation which may never return it later on.

The thinking of the federal government, however, is not as clear on that issue as the public had been led to believe. The first sign of a change in the no-export policy appeared, but went unnoticed, in a speech by Mr. Leon Ladner, Q.C., to the Commonwealth Club of California some six weeks ago. A text of this speech, now available, makes very remarkable reading when it is compared to the public statements of the federal government.

Mr. Ladner, it should be understood, is the manager and philosopher of the Conservative Party in British Columbia and an intimate of Mr. Diefenbaker. Indeed, Mr. Ladner said in his San Francisco speech that he had been directly authorized by the Prime Minister to state the government's favorable attitude toward American investment in Canada. Later on, without directly mentioning Mr. Diefenbaker in this connection, Mr. Ladner said this:

"The demand (for power) in British Columbia is now only about 10 per cent of the undeveloped hydro potential. The rest of the power runs merrily down the streams without any return. I hope and I see the probability of a change in policy that will make possible the export of power on the recovery basis when needed in Canada and upon a sufficiently reasonable notice being given."

If this does not represent the mind of the Prime Minister it certainly represents the views of the most powerful Conservative politician in British Columbia. Mr. Ladner sees and hopes for the "probability" that Canada's whole historic policy on exports will be abandoned. What Mr. Green and Mr. Fulton, negotiators of the Columbia treaty, think about this is unknown but the Ladner statement will certainly please Mr. Bennett.

He and the federal government are a long way apart in the power problem; he and Mr. Ladner apparently see eye to eye. And if Mr. Ladner sees the "probability" of a new national policy it must be very probable indeed. Mr. Bennett has thus been encouraged to maintain his Columbia blockade and his demand for exports as he prepares to meet Mr. Fleming who, perhaps, has not read Mr. Ladner's revealing speech.

Checking on Extremists

IF WE HAD NO EXTREMISTS, it is conceivable that society would wear its way into so deep a rut that human perspective would be no broader than the limits imposed by the sides of the rut.

We need the non-conformists, extremists among them.

But Mr. Gordon Hall, researcher, writer and lecturer on extremists' organizations in the United States, performs a useful function as he compiles information on those groups which can distort the whole image of North American society. His duties are to collect facts on agencies ranging from the extreme left of the Communist Party to the extreme right typified at present by the John Birch Society.

His research is important in providing the information public bodies need to prevent pressure movements that are injurious to a community.

"In some instances," notes Mr. Hall, "extremists have been able to capture a majority in local PTAs or school committees. Then only the most rigid kind of curriculum is adhered to. Often there is neither a realistic examination of East-West problems nor any information about the kind of troubled world in which we live. And extremists will only allow books acceptable to them to remain in school libraries."

Mr. Hall serves a useful purpose. His work may not guarantee a stable balance in society. At least it gives his people the opportunity to determine in which direction, and to what limits, extremists try to lead their less critical followers and to impose their dogmas on an apathetic public.

Dutchmen Against the Sea

THE PEOPLE OF THE NETHERLANDS have won a victory in their age-old fight against the North Sea. When the final caisson was placed in the protective Veerse Gat dike, the first stage in Holland's $600,000,000 Delta Plan was completed.

At heavy expense the Netherlands is reclaiming land and beginning to sweeten it from the inflow of the sea in the tragic 1953 floods and earlier inundation during the last years of World War II. Work will continue on the overall project until 1978, according to present plans, and dangers of more floods will be vastly reduced.

The painstaking and expensive work in Holland draws attention to the value of arable land. That is an issue which has been dealt with too lightly in many parts of Canada. Over the years Canadians in some parts of the prairies have mined the soil and watched it drift away. Those who lost their productive acreage were in the relatively happy position of being able to move elsewhere to vast new regions of productive ground.

In Holland the people have learned to value their holdings more dearly. The Delta Plan, inflicting unavoidable hardship on fishermen whose harbors have been cut off from the sea, reflects the price the Dutch are prepared to pay. Notably, substantial parts of the reclaimed areas will be reserved for parks and recreation areas—another object lesson for Canadians by the Netherlands on the importance of land use where land is exceedingly precious.

Another Look at Hollywood

THE CALIFORNIA STATE Senate is seeking another inquiry into morals on the screen.

The actual resolution asks for a special committee "to ascertain, study, and analyze all the facts relating to the current trend or trends in the content of motion pictures and the effect such trend or trends may have on the public morals or welfare."

On the face of it the resolution appears useful. By its nature, however, it faces serious obstacles. Chief of these seems to be the California state legislature's understandable unwillingness to enter the field of censorship. Moreover, the considerations of "box office" cannot be ignored in the moving picture industry.

On the other side of the coin, the intelligent members of the California senate have a clear appreciation of the way in which moving picture presentation of nonsocial or anti-social behaviour is being taken by juveniles of all ages as "commonplace, accepted and even desirable."

Hollywood feels something should be done. There is no clear indication that the film capital knows just what or how.

PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

By B. A. TOBIN

Don't Forget the Martlets

ONCE in a while an idea comes along which by its scope and imagination rings a bell. The new plan for development of Victoria College is one.

In its latest form—flexible yet firmly directed toward a definite objective—it has an appeal that should be felt by all residents of this community. It is a broad and exciting concept. And it ties in with—indeed it could become the core of—a still wider program: the development of Greater Victoria as a cultural, educational, residential community drawing experts and students in all types of art and scholarship.

This greater dream has been shared by a growing number of Victorians over the past few years. Geography—our island location—decides that we can never be a great industrial centre; bringing raw material here and transporting finished products to the mainland markets just costs too much. Except for certain localized products we cannot compete successfully with larger productive units located closer to the prospective buyers.

To try to fight this economic fact is to fight geography, which can be altered only in a limited way. Far better to co-operate with the geographical and climatic facts of our environment, and use them to our advantage.

Island Centre

An educational and cultural centre would be entirely in harmony with our geography. An island location has advantages from the academic point of view: it does not deter the transportation of persons as it does of goods.

Our climate and the natural setting are also conducive to such a development. Granted the required man-made facilities, there are many amenities here which would attract the outstanding professional people and creative spirits who would form the nucleus of the new growth.

With a basic wealth of museums, art galleries and widely-renowned educational institutions the problem of attracting tourists here would be largely solved. We would still have all the scenic, vacationing, gardening and sports assets—but in addition we would have the drawing power of cultural projects and exhibits which would be of immense value to residents and visitors alike. Development of such interests seems to be the true destiny of Victoria and in the end should provide more local employment than efforts to bring new industry here.

Pedestrian Ways

One of the promising aspects of the college plan as revealed last week is the way in which open spaces, gardens and pedestrian malls are given their proper place. This cannot help but induce a favorable atmosphere for learning and it will create a colorful and pleasant environment which might with justice be called typically Victorian.

This is co-operation with the natural trend of the community. It is also recognition that the automobile is useful for getting a student to his place of learning, but should be abandoned at that point for more natural means of locomotion. The college-to-be-university, as planned, could with the proposed type of landscaping become as famous for its beauty of setting as we hope it will be for its academic achievement.

One danger it faces: size. To universities as to factories, traffic streams and nuclear bangs, the judgment too often applied is "the bigger the better." This can be a terrible mistake.

Size in a university is valuable in attracting top-ranking men for the teaching staff, in providing the required financing for research and other facilities, in presenting the student body with a varied experience of human contacts. But it can become unwieldy, it can stifle individual growth, it can overcome both professorial and student bodies whose members become lost in the sheer vastness of the plant.

Danger Recognized

This danger can be met through various means. It is encouraging that both the college staff and the development planners are alive to the danger and its remedies.

Victoria College is huge today compared with its beginnings. It began as little more than a classroom of students affiliated with McGill University, and it bears upon its crest today the three martlets taken from the McGill coat of arms.

Those little birds hurrying across the shield might well serve as reminders that there was a time when teachers and student body were so few they could meet as a discussion group, view each other as individuals and be treated as individuals.

That is a quality which the large institution of today and the still larger institution of tomorrow should retain. May the martlets never be forgotten, or lost in the crowd.

MARKED FOR HUMAN VERDICT

Though anybody who knows anything of the courts would never sentimentalize over criminals, yet it should be said that many are good husbands, wives and parents. This fact is recognized, I know, by all magistrates, and they take such things into consideration. As did a very wise magistrate of many years' experience in giving his verdict on a man who could only be described as an "old customer." With a twinkle, this very human magistrate declared: "Not guilty—don't do it again."

—Derek Todd, British court reporter.

"E" FOR EFFORT

Success is not measured by the heights one attains, but by the obstacles one overcomes in its attainment.

—Booker T. Washington.

New Balance of Power

THE run of bad news from Cuba, Laos, Alabama, is, of course, a depressing prelude to the President's trip abroad. But we must not exaggerate. While the reverses we have suffered have hurt us with our allies and friends, I do not think they will have any substantial effect, one way or the other, on the basic problems which the President will be dealing with both in Paris and in Vienna.

In Paris, the problem will be how the Western Alliance is to be managed. In Vienna, the problem will be how the relations between the two great constellations are to be controlled. The two men with whom the President will be talking are realists who calculate their policy primarily in terms of national power. There are almost no American public men who are realists in the same degree. At least they do not talk out loud about it.

Gen. de Gaulle and Mr. Khrushchev believe in their own calculations of what the various powers can do, and in their own thinking they are very little impressed by, indeed they have a very high degree of immunity to, public relations and "images" and that sort of thing. Mr. Khrushchev is, of course, a great propagandist. But his policy is based on a cold calculation of power.

The language of the Paris and Vienna talks will have to be the language of power politics—which deals with what nations WILL do in relation to what they CAN do when their truly VITAL interests are involved.

Two Realists

But now that the arrangements have been set—with the blessing, so I hear, of Gen. de Gaulle himself—it is useful to realize not only that the president will be talking with two realists, but that their realistic calculations arise from the same factual base.

This is the fact that American military supremacy, which lasted from 1945 until shortly after 1955, has been replaced by a balance of power. This is the central event of our time, and it affects profoundly and pervasively all international relations.

When the President meets Gen. de Gaulle, he will find a man who, with the insight of genius, is acutely aware of the change in the world balance of power.

This awareness is the root of his disbelief in the validity of the NATO structure and strategy. This is the root of his lack of confidence, which must not be ignored, in the United States as the protector of Europe and the leader of the world.

This lack of confidence is the root of his demand for intimate and continual consultation on world affairs. This, too, is the root of his insistence on a policy, which may be impractical, that France have an independent nuclear force.

It would be vain to suppose that anyone can restore the American paramountcy built upon the nuclear monopoly of the post-war days. The United Nations, NATO, CENTO, SEATO—the grand political structure built upon the old paramountcy is shaken. It is this shaking which constitutes a large part of the subject matter of our diplomacy.

In Mr. Khrushchev the President will meet a man who is deeply conscious of, whose policy is governed by, the new fact that there is a balance of power.

Knows Facts

I do not share the views of those who are afraid that our reverses in Cuba and Laos have caused him to undertake American power or American determination. He knows perfectly well that the United States could take Havana in an afternoon, and that what restrains us is not fear of Soviet missiles but a recognition of the political disaster we would precipitate throughout the hemisphere and the free world.

As for Laos, he has had, of course, the certainty that we could not fight a Korean war in Indo-China. We could not fight it because in 1960 we do not have as we had in 1950 a monopoly of nuclear weapons which could in the last resort be decisive.

As I understand it, the new Soviet dogma—that all international dealing must be tripartite and by unanimous consent—rests ultimately on the same fact, that there is a balance of power. When there is a balance of power between two states, each state has a veto. Nothing can be done unless they agree.

Mr. Khrushchev carries this principle to an extreme point. Thus there might be agreement to abide by the judgment of a third party. That, in effect, is what we want. Mr. Khrushchev is more vehement and more irascible than his own principle requires.

In any event the controlling fact in dealing with Mr. Khrushchev is his insistence upon a full recognition, with all its consequences spelled out, of the new balance of power.

Everyone Is Treading Gently

A PREREQUISITE for a federal politician these days is a fine sense of timing. The country is obviously going to be treated to a general election within the next 12 months, and everyone here is treading gently, as though walking on thin-shelled eggs. Consider the prime minister's dilemma. Some of his more eager backbenchers are after him to call an election this fall. The western MPs in particular want to go to their voters while visions of the great wheat sale to China are still dancing in their heads.

One MP was very blunt about it. "If we have an election this summer or fall, I would win. After that—I just don't know."

Mr. Diefenbaker, however, is not easily swayed by that sort of talk. Power, once obtained, is not easy to release, and Mr. Diefenbaker is very human in that regard.

According to public opinion polls, the Canadian people are turning more and more against his government. Quebec is lost, most of New Brunswick is lost, Ontario is slipping out of his grasp. An election now could mean defeat; it would be a chancy business at best.

But, if he holds off until next year... Those who follow politics will note that the PM has been making reassuring sounds of late. He keeps telling the country things are picking up, we are on our way to recovery. He finds in every statistical report some omen of better times ahead.

That there are such signs does not alter the basic facts of current-day economics in Canada. No matter what the upturn this summer and fall, only a miracle could bring unemployment levels down to an acceptable level next winter.

We have been building up a backlog of unemployed for three years now, at least, and no amount of normal recovery is going to remove that backlog. Mr. Diefenbaker knows it, and so does anyone else in Ottawa who cares to study the record.

Unemployment figures issued last week give part of the story. Between March and April this year, 170,000 Canadians found jobs. But the total number of unemployed did not drop by 170,000, because 87,000 men and women entered the labor force during that period.

During the past 12 months, 181,000 people entered the labor force. In that period, only 111,000 people found jobs. The net result: another 70,000 added to the ranks of unemployed.

Only the most strenuous national effort this year will enable the economy to absorb the growth in our labor force. And we will still be left with that nagging backlog.

The prime minister is faced with going through a fourth winter of abnormally high unemployment, of having the Canadian people watch with confusion as the promised good times disappear in another inexorable rise in the number of jobless next fall and winter. Could he then survive a general election?

Then there is the budget problem. The Conservatives are in enough trouble without bringing down a "hard" budget before an election. Pre-election budgets are times for tax cuts and increased welfare payments.

But the economic situation is not compatible with such action. What to do? Bring down a harsh budget now, and hold off the election? Or dish up a sweetened and tight budget and hold an election?

As Our Readers See It

Largest Protestant Group

In your informative "Ask the Times" column some days ago, the question was asked: "What is Canada's largest Protestant denomination?" Your reply was: "The Anglican Church with 1,300,029 members."

This may be technically correct for Christian denominations have different ways of recording membership. Some include all baptized people, including children. Others count only adult, confirmed members. However, I have before me the 1960 Canada Year Book which says that in the last census of Canada, 2,867,271 registered as belonging to the United Church of Canada, or 20.5 per cent of the Canadian population. Next to the United Church was the Anglican Church with 2,060,720, or 14.7 per cent of the population. This same proportion is borne out in other vital statistics such as marriages, etc.

Thanks for your interesting column. F. E. H. JAMES.

Veterans' Allowance

Re war vets' allowances. It is to be hoped that promises to review and amend regulations will include methods of accounting employed in establishing, maintaining and suspending allowances granted on a means test.

At present, if a veteran or his dependents show a bank balance which appears to exceed the allowed maximum, including the current due allowance and, despite the fact that cheques for the preceding month's expenses have been written against it (but perhaps not presented), the allowance is cut off immediately.

In cases of illness, etc., bills and corresponding credits pile up. This can leave persons dependent upon a hand-to-mouth subsistence allowance, actually destitute, until such time as they become competent to again grope their need. All too often the person whose allowance has been cut off by a deceptive "credit" is too ill to engage in the arduous harassment of compiling and presenting records, yet not ill enough to be hospitalized.

In such cases Old Soldiers Fade Away a lot more painfully than they otherwise might.

K. MACDONALD,

Christian Names

It seems a shame that American rockets and missiles are named after pagan gods such as Thor, Jupiter, Atlas, etc., when the pagans were so inefficient at killing. Since these are Christian implements intended to preserve Christian civilization from these pagans, why not give them Christian names?

A Christian lady in The Liberal, February, 1961, suggests that every explosion be accompanied with this chant: Mathew, Mark, Luke and John. Tell the folks you fall upon. You came from a Christian nation. Of most Christ-like motivation. Sanctified each negation—From Mathew, Mark, Luke and John. JOHN G. POIRIER.

Outpouching on Gullet

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

People write to say that while having their digestive tract x-rayed, the doctor found a small diverticulum, or pouch, on their gullet. Some say that this pouch is producing no symptoms, while a few say that it sometimes makes swallowing a bit difficult.

What happens is that when the pouch fills with food, it presses on the side of the gullet and tends to narrow the passageway.

I think if I had such a pouch and it wasn't bothering me, I would wait and see if it did become troublesome. If it was bothering me every time I ate, I would go to a big clinic and see the expert on diseases of the gullet.

Alvarez

down low; and often this causes the poor woman many discomforts.

Such women, perhaps in their fifties or sixties or seventies, write to ask me if I would recommend a repair operation. My answer is that if they are still in good health, wide-awake, spry, and not enormously stout, and if a good surgeon says he is not afraid to perform the operation, they had better go ahead and accept it.

A woman of 50 may have to live on until she is 85, and 35 years is a long time to be suffering.

Dr. Jerome J. Sievers of the Los Angeles Children's Hospital has just been emphasizing the need for doctors telling the parents right away that their child has asthma when he recognizes the disease.

Dr. Sievers says that often the physician is too reluctant to make this diagnosis because he fears to cause the parents' anxiety. But if precious time is wasted before seriously tackling the problems of the disease and really curing the child, the asthma may become so chronic that it will go on perhaps for the rest of the poor sufferer's life. The time to understand an asthma well and to fight it strenuously is when it first appears.

A Picnic and on to Flower Show

The first flower show of the summer season will be held this week at Shawnigan Lake.

I can't think of a more pleasant way in which to spend the first day of June, Thursday, than on a trip to the lake with a picnic lunch and then on to see the show between 2.30 and 4.30 p.m. Or, a picnic supper, and visit the show between 7.30 and 9 p.m.

Those are the times during which the 16th annual flower show sponsored jointly by the Shawnigan Lake Women's Institute and the Shawnigan Lake P.T.A. will be open.

A well-organized catalogue of classes has been arranged calling for bearded (German) iris, pyrethrum, delphinium, lupin and other of the early summer flowers. Children of all ages have been encouraged to exhibit in classes adapted to their capabilities, as well as urging them on to increase their skill.

IMAGINATION

The decorative arrangement section gives everyone a chance to exercise imagination. A composition may be made in the provincial colors of red, yellow and green; or dainty fingers may create a miniature arrangement on a button-diameter three inches over all.

The community spirit which enables two different organizations to get together on a project such as this show cannot be too highly commended.

DELIGHTED

The local public no doubt appreciate these efforts, but when some out-of-towners register their interest by travelling a few miles to attend the show, the officials are always delighted.

The workers responsible for staging any flower show deserve the support of the public, and any home owner with a garden, or dreaming of a garden, will benefit from a visit to the Shawnigan Lake flower show on Thursday.

Nehru Scolds Powers For Aiding Portugal

DURGAPUR, India (Reuters)—Prime Minister Nehru today criticized the support given by "some of the great powers" to Portugal, engaged in a three-month-old battle with rebels in its West African territory of Angola.

Nehru singled out for criticism British Foreign Secretary Lord Home, who has just ended an official visit to Portugal.

The Indian prime minister said such visits, when a "bloody war of extermination" was raging in Angola, created a bad impression on every African and Asian and "elsewhere too."

Nehru, speaking to the policy-making body of the ruling Congress party, said the "genocide" and "manslaughter" carried out by the Portuguese in Angola had gone beyond the "normal pale of human tolerance, political tolerance."

He said the great powers who were members of NATO with Portugal would be tested by their attitude toward Portuguese colonialism.

The policy-making Congress party committee adopted a resolution condemning Portuguese repression in Angola.

European Red 'Summit'

BUDAPEST (Reuters)—Premier Khrushchev will hold a conference of east European Communist leaders during his stay in Czechoslovakia later this week, usually well informed sources said here today.

Hungarian officials declined comment on the report.

The sources said the Hungarian delegation headed by Janos Kadar, first secretary of the Communist party, would leave Budapest Wednesday.

They said the earlier arrival of President Sukarno of Indonesia appeared to confirm the report of a Communist summit meeting.

Engineering President Honor Guest

Dr. George Dick, national president, Engineering Institute of Canada, and Mrs. Dick were guests of honor at a dinner meeting of the Vancouver Island branch of the Institute at the Olde England Inn, last week.

Dr. Dick spoke of the challenge for Canadian engineers to solve the increasingly complex problems of the modern world. He warned that Canadians must keep abreast of scientific and engineering accomplishments, they are not to fall behind other countries technically and economically.

MARKETS NEEDED

He stressed the need to expand secondary industry and domestic markets in Canada and pointed out that Canadian engineers have the ability and responsibility to lead the development of their country.

During the meeting Dr. Dick presented a certificate of life membership of the Institute to Major-General C. R. S. Stein, a member of the local branch.

Earlier in the afternoon the national president visited the Canadian Services College, Royal Roads, and talked with senior engineering cadets there.

Teachers Quitting In Sask.

REGINA (CP)—The resignation of 180 school teachers in three Saskatchewan school units may mean that about 4,200 pupils will be without teachers when the fall term starts in September.

The resignations, effective June 30, are in three units declared "in dispute" by the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation after the teachers rejected conciliation board recommendations of no salary increases.

Last week, 43 of 57 teachers in the Gull Lake unit resigned and 49 out of 54 teachers in the Shaunavon unit quit. Then 78 of 86 teachers in the Melfort unit resigned. The Gull Lake unit previously had 10 other teachers resign for various reasons.

Under Teachers' Federation policy, the "dispute" status of the three units prohibits teachers from applying for positions in these areas.

To counteract the teachers' action, more than half of the unit boards in the province have stopped advertising for teachers, hiring them or negotiating with them.

ISLAND VIEWPOINT

Fifth-School

COWICHAN LEADER—News that another private school is being established in this district is further evidence of advantages of living here which ought to be stressed more often.

The new boys' school will be the fifth here, and it may be remarkable to some that four of them are in the southern part of the district, verging on the Malahat mountain, which divides our district from Victoria.

Climatically, the district's weather averages are better than most. This may not be particularly comforting just now to those wishing to tend their gardens but not anxious to do so in a raincoat, but, by and large, the climate is no hindrance to youthful pastimes. Also, technically, the easterly strip of V.I. from a point below Nanaimo south to Victoria is sub-Mediterranean in character. Someone actually made this discovery in a geography book now out of Modestly, the district's champions have refrained from trumpeting the fact, though rightfully entitled to do so.

It is a gesture which gives great pleasure, to salute the decision for a new Brentwood College at Bay this fall.

Litter

WEST COAST ADVOCATE—There is hardly a community that has not a problem when it comes to litter—litter dropped without a thought by otherwise community-minded citizens. It is not just a question of gum wrappers any more, it's candy wrappers, paper bags and what have you—they all find their way onto the streets.

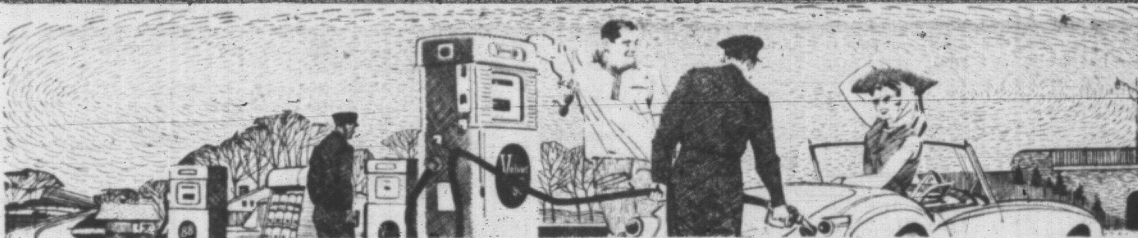

Installed on the downtown streets are a number of receptacles, and while they come in for use, they could carry a lot more of the refuse people discard while walking, or even while driving.

Alongside our highways one frequently notices where someone has unloaded their garbage, rather than take it to the regular dumps. There is a law against this sort of action, but catching the culprits in the act is not easy. If they are apprehended the full course of the law should be exercised as a deterrent to others.

MAC WARNS:

'W. Europe
Must Grow'

LONDON (Reuters)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said today that Britain is determined to press for the consolidation of Western Europe but added that unity must grow and cannot be imposed.

The British leader spoke at the opening of the seventh assembly of the Western European Union, made up of the six nations of the European Common Market—France, Belgium, West Germany, Italy, The Netherlands and Luxembourg—plus Britain.

Macmillan said: "We are determined to press forward with the consolidation of Western Europe... in all fields of human activity." The statement came amid rumors Britain intends to join the Common Market.

However, alluding to present British low-tariff agreements with the Commonwealth countries and the "Outer Eight" nations of the European Free Trade Association, Macmillan said Britain did not want to create prosperity for itself while ignoring their interests.

Information Agency Fund
Boost Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's request for a bigger budget for the U.S. Information Agency was turned down today by the House of Representatives appropriations committee.

Instead of increasing the agency's funds, it trimmed $16,690,000 from the lower original request.

The reduced budget did not, however, affect the Voice of America, the information agency's program of foreign broadcasting.

The president, originally sought $151,480,000 for the U.S. foreign propaganda organization. Last Thursday, in a special message to Congress, he asked that "the funds previously requested for this effort not only be approved in full but increased."

The requested increase amounted to about $3,000,000. But even with the reduction, the USIA would get $3,080,000 more than it received this year.

Nine Lives Saved
As Cruiser Burns

SEATTLE (AP)—Four adults and five children were rescued Saturday from a flaming cabin cruiser which sank in Case Inlet near Olympia following an explosion in the engine room.

The coast guard said members of the John Havens and Ray M. Johnson families were taken aboard a 17-foot outboard by Charles Linne of Ft. Lewis, Wash.

All received minor burns.

ALL TYPES of pets — dogs, cats, horses, rabbits—were entered in the SPCA Junior Pet Show held at the Victoria Riding Academy Saturday. Shown here are Ricky Soles, 11, with his mongrel "Laddie," winner of the open class for the most obedient dog. Doris Higgs (left) with her German shephard placed second.

COMMONERS, BLUE BLOODS
HIT IT OFF AT PET SHOW

By HUMPHRY DAVY

Dogs large and small, dogs with long and short tails, huge cats, some with fur more than an inch thick, rabbits, hamsters and guinea pigs, all wound up at Victoria Riding Academy Saturday.

The occasion was the first junior pet show of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals—a show organized for the young people of Victoria.

About 100 boys and girls entered pets in the show. Horses and ponies were included.

But the show itself attracted more than 300 youngsters. Many were lined up for admission an hour before the doors were opened for registration.

'BIG SUCCESS'

"It's a big success," said Mrs. J. W. Redpath, organizer of the show. "It's our first junior show and the response exceeds expectations.

The only pets which were conspicuous by their absence were mice.

There was a class for the little rodents, but it seems that mice-raising as a hobby hasn't caught on in the Greater Victoria area.

Birds, fish, reptiles and insects were barred from the show.

EQUALITY

Competition was keen, and there was no distinction in the dog class.

A mongrel stood as good a chance of winning as a purebred. There appeared to be no hard feelings between the commoners and blue bloods.

Trophies were awarded to owners with the biggest and smallest dogs or cats with the longest tails, but the most important awards were for the best-cared-for and most-obedient animals.

Mrs. W. C. Woodward presented the prizes. Tom Hughes of Vancouver, executive director of the provincial SPCA, acted as master of ceremonies.

MONGREL WINS

One of the most interesting contests was the open class for the best-trained dog. It was won by Laddie, a mongrel dog owned by Ricky Soles, 11 years.

Runner-up was a German Shepherd owned by 14-year-old Doris Higgs.

Winners of other classes were: Susan Volard, longest haired dog; Wendy Baker, largest dog; Joan Kerley, smallest dog; Wendy Baker, dog with the longest tail; George Barendsen, best cared for dog owned by child under 10; Margaret White, best cared for dog owned by child over 10; Donald Wilson, most obedient dog not formally trained; Pat Proehl, dog with the longest ears; Susan Pennington, longest haired cat; Diana Cooper, largest cat; Susan Pennington, cat with longest tail; Grace Feika, cat with most extraordinary markings; Vicky Irvine, best cared for specimen; Bonnie Colton, rabbits, best cared for specimen; Pam Jones, hamsters, best cared for specimen; Barbara Trotter, guinea pigs, best cared for specimen.

Other winners: Ricky Soles, most obedient dog formally trained; Susan Pennington, open class, best cared for specimen; Marcia Barry, best cared for horse owned by child over 15; Marcia Barry, best disciplined horse owned by child under 15; Jackie Shepherd, best cared for horse by child under 15; Sheila Reside, best disciplined horse owned by a child under 15. George Barendsen won the SPCA champion trophy for winning the most points.

MINISTER
CRASH VICTIM

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The Polish foreign ministry described as "pure nonsense" today Western reports that Deputy Interior Minister Antoni Alster has fled to the West.

Friends of the security official also denied the reports. They said Alster is recuperating in Warsaw from a near-fatal car crash eight or nine months ago. He suffered multiple injuries, and is unable to go to his office regularly but does most of his work at home, these informants said.

A London newspaper quoted Polish emigre sources in London as saying Alster fled 10 weeks ago through West Berlin and now is in Washington. The U.S. Embassy in Warsaw denies any knowledge of the matter.

Watchman Drowns

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—Henry Rupert, 40, a shipyard watchman, is believed to have fallen into the Fraser River and drowned while making his rounds Friday. He was reported missing after failing to make a routine phone call at 4:50 a.m. Police found only his dog when they went to investigate the lapse in phone calls at Mercer shipyards.

VOTERS TAKE OVER TODAY

Good Crowds Hear Last Salvos

Parting shots in the Esquimalt-Saanich byelection campaign were fired over the weekend as good crowds met to hear Premier Bennett, Liberal and New Party spokesmen.

Long Strike Ends

HENDERSON, N.C. (UPI)—One of the country's most violent and longest-textile strikes ended Friday at the Harriet-Henderson cotton mills with the union conceding defeat. The Textile Workers of America said it called off the costly 2½-year strike, which had turned members of families against each other, because to continue "would serve only to block constructive developments in behalf of our members in Henderson."

However, pickets will continue to walk their beats in front of the mills at shift changes until Thursday, and strike benefits will end July 1, the TWUA announced.

A crowd estimated at 400 went to Mount View High School to hear the premier wind up the campaign for Social Credit candidate George Hahn.

CHALLENGE

He challenged the federal government to admit that its National Energy Board was in favor of exporting hydro power.

He said Dr. Gordon Shrum, chairman of the B.C. Energy Board, favors this policy.

"I'll say without fear of contradiction that the federal government's energy board is also in favor."

"The federal government is afraid to publish this fact," said the premier.

(He wants export of Columbia River power, and a policy which will encourage development of the Peace River for power sales to the U.S.) Liberal David Groos spoke to some 50 persons Saturday in Happy Valley Elementary School.

'FIASCO'

Guest speaker Alan Macfarlane said the B.C. and Ottawa government had created "an almost unbelievable political fiasco" on the Columbia.

Both these governments should be voted out, he said. Mr. Groos called for "a real kick in the pants for the government" in today's voting. One more Tory MP would be a useless voice among the huge government majority, he said.

WORKERS PAID

According to New Party officials, 200 persons turned out at Douglas CCF Hall Sunday for an organizational meeting held by candidate Glen Hamilton.

"Our task tomorrow will be to show that the people can defeat the slush funds of the old-line parties," he said.

He said the Conservatives, Liberals and Socials pay their campaign workers, but the New Party doesn't.

Anderson-Elected

VANCOUVER—Rev. Arthur L. Anderson of Dunbar Heights United Church in Vancouver has been elected president of the B.C. Conference of the United Church, succeeding Rev. Robert Moses of Qualicum Beach.

Laymen Frank Archibald and C. O. Richmond of Vancouver are secretary and treasurer, respectively. They were elected Saturday at their conference annual meeting here.

Royals Gain Final

LOS ANGELES — New Westminster Royals and Mexico's national select team meet Tuesday for the championship of the first annual Pacific Coast International Soccer Championships.

The first place will earn the President Kennedy Cup and a $1,000 cash award.

The Canadians defeated the San Francisco Scots, 3-0, Sunday and Mexico beat St. Stephens of Los Angeles, 2-1.

Right winger Bob Coyle scored the first for Royals at 16 minutes of the first half. Left winger Jack James scored in seven minutes of the second half and center forward Tony Crisp at 16 minutes.

SPORTS SHORTS

Bathgate Third

VANCOUVER (CP) — Johnny Russell of Vancouver became the top contender for first position on B.C.'s Willingdon Cup team Sunday by winning the 27-hole Vancouver park board tournament with a two-under-par 70-35-105 at Fraser view golf course, three strokes better than Mike Kozak. New York Rangers' hockey veteran Andy Bathgate and Bert Ticehurst tied for third place.

Ann Barclay Wins

OAKVILLE, Ont. (CP) — Vancouver's Ann Barclay, 23, won her second successive Oakville invitation tennis tournament title Saturday, beating Mrs. Louise Brown of Toronto 6-1, 6-1.

Racing Driver Hurt

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — Seattle driver Bob Mettler was reported in good condition in hospital here Sunday after a spectacular end-over-end crash on the Westwood car racing circuit. Pat Pigott, of Bellingham, driving a Lotus Formula Junior won the average speed of 77.3 miles an hour.

Montreal Best

MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal Cantalia held off Toronto Italia's second-half rally for a 4-2 win Sunday in the Eastern Canada Professional Soccer League.

Hungary Nips Wales

BUDAPEST (AP) — Hungary defeated Wales 3-2 in an international soccer game Sunday, scoring the winning goal two minutes from the end on a penalty.

Maserati First In Gruelling Race

ADENAU, Germany (AP) — An Italian Maserati handled by Masten Gregory of Kansas City, Mo., and Lloyd Lucky Casner of Miami, Fla., won the gruelling 1,000-kilometre 622-mile Nuerburg Ring sports car race Sunday.

JOHNNIE BRIGHT

Eskimo Vet Signs

EDMONTON (CP) — Edmonton Eskimos of the Western Football Conference have announced that veteran fullback Johnnie Bright has been signed for another season with the club. Bright joined the Eskimos in 1954 after two seasons with Calgary Stampeders. He set a Canadian football rushing record of 1,722 yards in the 1958 season.

ESTES PLANS FEDERAL POLICING

Boxing Worth Saving?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Crime commission executives in several U.S. cities have called for federal policing of professional boxing to save it from mobsters.

One, Virgil W. Peterson, operating director of the Chicago crime commission, said underworld influence is so vast he wonders whether boxing as a professional sport is even worth saving.

Senator Estes Kefauver released letters from the commissioners as he prepared for public hearings starting Wednesday on his bill to create in the justice department the post of federal boxing commissioner.

The bill would arm this official with sweeping powers to drive underworld figures away from the ring.

Kefauver announced a long list of witnesses for the three-day hearings, including former heavyweight champions Joe Louis, Rocky Marciano, Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney.

SQUEEZE PLAY IN SUNDECK

In spring young people's thoughts turn to thoughts of love, etc., and locale doesn't seem to make any difference, as witness this bit of smooching on top row of sundeck at Cincinnati's Crosley Field Sunday. Youngster in front of couple doesn't know what he is missing. Gentleman with cupped hands suns himself comfortably in shorts with his shirt and trousers laid neatly to his right. Score of National League baseball game between Cincinnati and Philadelphia? Who cares?

Palmer Loses to Ford On Second Extra Hole

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — De- $6,518 this year, captured the tending champion Doug Ford $9,000 first prize by staving rammed home a 12-foot birdie off Palmer, whose sensational putt on the second hole of a 30-foot eagle on the 72nd hole sudden-death playoff with forced the playoff. Palmer, Arnold Palmer and captured who finished the final round the $50,000 Festival Open with a five-under-par 66, took the runner-up prize of $4,600.

Ford, who had earned only Probably the most disappointed man on the course was leading PGA money-winner Gary Player of South Africa, who finished about half an hour before Ford and Palmer played out the final hole. Player, who shot a 67, had a 72-hole total of 274 and seemed reasonably certain of gaining at least a tie with Ford or Palmer.

Ford—the 54-hole leader by two strokes over Palmer and Player—had gone without a tournament victory in 32 consecutive tries since he won last year's Speedway tourney with a 10-under-par 274.

forward for Victoria against Birmingham, scored both goals in all-stars' win over Vancouver.

Len Scott is expected to coach the city squad.

STRIKES OUT 15

Des Moseley Keeps Them Loose

Batters in the Senior Amateur Baseball League are standing nice and loose at the plate whenever Des Moseley takes the mound.

They should. Moseley, a pitching standout in a league which isn't always known for the excellence of its hurlers, used his blazing fastball to strike out 15 batters at Royal Athletic Park Saturday as Douglas Hotel turned back Union Bay, 9-3.

The visitors took it on the chin again in the nightcap, losing 9-7 to previously winless Wakarusa Trimble.

Bud Brice singled home the winning run for WT, who were outlived 12-9.

Kidd Runs 4.11 Mile

GUELPH, Ont. (CP) — Toronto runner Bruce Kidd Saturday ran the mile in 4.11.3 here at the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations meet.

His time was only three-tenths of a second off the North American interscholastic record, but well below his own Canadian interscholastic record of 4:16.6, which he set last week.

Steeplechase Mark Set by Russian

KIEV (AP) — Russia's Grigory Taran bettered the world record for the 3,000-metre steeplechase with a clocking of 8:31.2 Sunday, Tass reported.

The listed record for the steeplechase event of 8:31.4 was made by Poland's Zbyslaw Krzyszkowiak at Tula in the Soviet Union June 26, 1960.

Big Men With Long Bats Rap Out New Hit Record

Sluggers Blast 34 Homers In 11 Major League Games

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Major league big guns fired a record salvo of home runs Sunday to mark the approach of the pennant races' Memorial Day milestone.

All told, there were 37 homers, surpassing the previous record of 34 for a schedule of 11 games, to excite the 154,756 fans who turned out for the pre-holiday action.

And when it was all over, the Detroit Tigers and San Francisco Giants were virtually assured of occupying first place on the night of May 30—a fact which history says gives them a better-than-even chance to meet in the World Series next October.

No less than 26 homers were hit in seven American League games and another 11 were hit in four National League contests as the big men with the long, tapered bats enjoyed a field day. There were 10 homers hit during the Cleveland-Kansas City doubleheader and another nine belted during the Chicago-New York bargain bill. Yet, with it all, there were a few pitchers who came out relatively unscathed.

When the last baseball flew out of sight, here's how the big league picture shaped up:

The Tigers, powered by three homers, walloped the Los Angeles Angels, 9-4, and took a three and one-half game lead in the American League. They're assured of leading the league the night of May 30 no matter what happens in the next 48 hours.

The Giants overcame Ernie Banks' grand slam homer to beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-5, and now lead the National League by two and one-half games. They'll have at least a share of first place Tuesday night if they don't blow three games in 36 hours to the Cincinnati Reds.

New York Yankees scored a 5-3 victory after losing, 14-9, to the Chicago White Sox; the Cleveland Indians beat the Kansas City Athletics, 9-1, and then lost, 8-4; the Washington Senators topped the Minnesota Twins, 6-4, and the Boston Red Sox defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 5-0, in other AL games.

World Champs Clipped by Cardinals

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers shaded the Milwaukee Braves, 4-3, the Cincinnati Reds downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-4.

Charlie Maxwell, Norm Cash and Dick Brown hit homers to offset round-trippers by Earl Averill and Ken Hunt and enable Detroit's Jim Bunning to win his third game. The Tigers won the game with a four-run eighth-inning rally featured by the homers by Cash and Brown, and climaxed when relief pitcher Johnny James of the Angels walked three straight batters to force in a run.

Jose Pagan's ninth-inning single drove in the winning run for the Giants, who handed the Cubs their seventh consecutive defeat. The beneficiary was Stu Miller, who yielded a ninth-inning homer to Ed Bouchee but nevertheless picked up his third win of the season.

Home runs by Al Smith, Wes Covington and Floyd Robinson paced the White Sox to their opening game victory that ended a six-game losing streak but the Yankees split the doubleheader behind Jim Coates' six innings of shutout relief and a homer by Roger Maris. Covington and pinch-hitter Bob Cerv hit grand slams in the first game and Robinson also drove in four runs. Bill Skowron singled home the decisive run in the nightcap.

Homers by Vic Power and Johnny Romano paced the Indians to their first-game victory, behind Gary Bell's six-hitter, but the Athletics squared matters in the nightcap on the wings of round-trippers by Leo Posada, Dick Howser, Norm Siebern and Joe Pignatano. Norm Bass pitched a six-hitter, including homers by Johnny Romano, Woodie Held and Jimmy Pier-led all scorers with six points. Gordy Gimble was Vancouver's best behind Usselman with two goals and two assists. Ashbee's two goals and an assist jumped him into second place in individual scoring with 27 points. He trails New Westminster's Cliff Sepka by 10 points.

Nanaimo picked up John Coleman, cut by Vancouver. New Westminster will try to make it 10 wins without a defeat Sunday when they travel to Vancouver. The league leaders released four players on the weekend, bringing the club to regulation size before the June 1 deadline. Cut were Jack Howse, Keith Jackson, Barry Brownlee and Wayne Shuttleworth.

Milan Team Won't Release English Ace 'at Any Price'

MILAN, Italy (Reuters) — The Milan soccer team will not release English star Jimmy Greaves from his contract with them at any price, a club official said here Friday night.

Milan vice-president Mino Spacaddini told a reporter the option that Greaves signed with Milan would not be annulled, no matter what sum the London Chelsea team or other groups might be prepared to pay as compensation.

He was commenting on a report that Milan had indicated that it would be prepared to release Greaves for the equivalent of $280,000. Chelsea sold him to Milan for that price.

Spacaddini said the report was groundless. He said his club would wait until June 7, the date on which Greaves' debut for Milan was expected.

Should Greaves fail to arrive, or should he notify Milan that he does not wish to join them, the club will ask the International Football Federation to adopt "appropriate measures,"

Jump Mark Broken; Eves Second in 220

tops 27 feet

Victoria's Lynn Eves raced to a second-place finish in the 220-yard event of the 20th Annual California relays at Modesto, Calif., Saturday night in a star-studded meet that was marked by a world record broad jump and a 100-yard sprint between Vancouver's Harry Jerome and Dennis Johnson of San Jose State.

Olympic and world champion Ralph Boston became the first man to broad jump 27 feet—surpassing the mark by a half-inch. His world record was 26 feet 11 1/4 inches.

In the century dash, Johnson of San Jose State nipped Jerome at the tape and won in 9.4 seconds.

Jerome, who runs for Oregon, was clocked in the same time over the Modesto Junior College clay track but lost by inches.

The 9.4 clocking was one-tenth of a second off the world record, held jointly by Jerome and Armin Hary of West Germany. Jerome equalled that mark at Oregon last Saturday and Johnson, from Jamaica, has matched it four times this spring.

Johnson's victory was his 13th straight in the 100 and it was Jerome's first loss since the Olympic trials last year when he suffered a pulled muscle.

Eves, a member of Canada's Olympic team last summer and now running for Oregon State, sprinted the 220 in 21 seconds, three-tenths of a second behind the winning time posted by Dave Styron of Southern Illinois.

NOT THE LIMIT

After his jump, Boston, from Tennessee A and I, said: "I didn't think I could go that far, but I certainly don't think it's the limit."

Oregon State's Dale Story surprised both Canada's Doug Kyle and Charley Clark of San Jose State in winning the two-mile race. Story sprinted ahead on the final lap and finished in 8:46.9.

DEFENDING CHAMPION

Kyle was defending champion here and Clark last week had set a collegiate record of 8:45.4.

Oregon's relay team, anchored by American champion Daryl Burleson, won the four-mile event in 16:32.8.

Vic Reeve of Vancouver ran the first leg for Oregon, followed by George Larson and Keith Forman.

Another Canadian, Sig Ohlmann of Vancouver, placed third in the 880-yard dash, won by Jerry Siebert in 1:50.2.

Rosi Springs Ring Surprise

NEW YORK (AP) — Paolo Rosi, a 33-year-old New Yorker by way of Italy, scored an emphatic upset over young Len Matthews of Philadelphia in Madison Square Garden Saturday night and probably jumped right back into the top 10 in the lightweight division.

His main weapon was a jolting right uppercut that he used time and time again to stagger the 22-year-old Matthews.

Whipper Wins

Whipper Billy Watson came out on top in the main event of Saturday night's professional wrestling card at the Memorial Arena, taking the final two falls to defeat Mitsu Arakawa before about 2,000 fans.

In preliminary bouts, Dan McDonald bested Bob Morse, Guy Brunetti grappled to a draw with "The Yankee" and Ivan Kameroff lost to Joe Brunetti.

Cadet Sniper Wins New Rifle Trophy

Ed Walker of the PPCLI cadets set the pace for riflemen at Heals Range Sunday, capturing the Victoria and District Rifle Association's new Overseas Trophy as he scored 213 out of a possible 225 in five bouts from 200, 500, 600 and 900-yard ranges.

Walker finished with a three-point bulge over Frank Drysdale and Major A. M. T. Spittal. In fourth place was Ron McCreedy, one point ahead of CPO W. Burch, with 208.

Lieut. D. Fyvie topped the two snipers with a score of 204.

PAYNE TRIUMPHS

Duncan Payne of Canadian Scottish, who won the RCN Cup the previous weekend, made it a sweep in a two-part trophy shoot Saturday as he collected the President's Cup and the aggregate title.

Payne fired 137 of a possible 150 Saturday, finishing the aggregate competition with 320x350, three points in front of Chuck Hobson.

Schoolboy Fires Fourth No-Hitter

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Al Mantel closed out his high school baseball career Friday by pitching his fourth straight no-hit game for Benton Harbor St. John in a 13-0 pasting of Decatur, Mich., High.

It was the sixth straight victory for the 18-year-old left hander. His earned run average for the season is 0.48.

Aussies Score 381 For Five Wickets

LONDON (Reuters)—Centuries by Bill Awry and Norman O'Neill put the Australian cricket tourists in a strong position on the first day of their match against the M.C.C. at Lords Saturday.

By the close of play, the Australians had scored 381 runs for the loss of five wickets.

SIMPSON SCORES

Billy Foster Wins Duel With Varley

Billy Foster and Bob Simpson lead-footed their way to main-event victories in Saturday night's car-racing meet at Western Speedway.

Foster made it two straight stock-car main event triumphs as he nipped Dick Varley in one of the finest driving duels ever witnessed at the Langford oval.

Starting from the two last positions, Foster and Varley were battling for the lead after 16 laps and Foster was able to hold his slim lead for the remainder of the 25-lap route.

Simpson took the checkered flag in both sprint car events, besting runner-up Ray Pottinger in the trophy dash and main event.

RESULTS

STOCK CARS
 Trophy Dash—1. Billy Foster; 2. Dick Varley; 3. Bob Clarke.
 First heat—1. Red Burke; 2. Wally Lum; 3. Jim Berry.

SPRINT CARS

Trophy dash—1. Bob Simpson; 2. Ray Pottinger; 3. Jim Chase.
 Main event—1. Bob Simpson; 2. Ray Pottinger; 3. Bill Heller.

Score Sent To Minors

NEW YORK (AP)—Left-hander Herb Score, only rarely effective since he was hit in the eye by a line drive in 1957, was optioned by Chicago White Sox to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League Friday night.

"We want Herb to go out and work his way back to us," said Chicago manager Al Lopez of the 28-year-old southpaw, who has won only 13 games since he was struck in the right eye by a line drive hit by Gil McDougald of New York Yankees four years ago.

Two Straight For Empiric

VANCOUVER (CP)—Empiric, a seven-year-old bay gelding, won the featured $2,000 Kempston Park Handicap and his second straight victory of the season at Exhibition Park here Saturday.

Under rider Jimmy Broomfield, Empiric breezed to a four-length victory in the time of 1:13 1/5. The time, run on a track rated as sloppy, was only 3/5 of a second off the fastest time of the year.

Broomfield had another winner to match Charlie Ulrich's pair in the continuing battle for the jockey leadership.

About 7,500 fans bet $150,000.

First Balcony wrecked the comeback run of the highly-favored Prove It to score a smashing victory Saturday in the $112,700 Californian before 50,000 fans at Inglewood, Calif.

Jockey Eddie Burns upset the heralded combination of Rex C. Ellsworth's Prove It and Jockey Willie Shoemaker in a stirring finish of the 1 1/16-mile feature at Hollywood Park.

Sea Orbit was a surprise third. T. V. Lark finished fourth in the field of eight. The time was 1:40 2/5 on a fast track.

Victory was worth $67,700 to the Greenville Stable owners, a sum little more than the $62,200 the four-year-old chestnut runner had earned in previous starts this year.

For Prove It, beaten by 4 1/2 lengths, the loss was only his second in 11 races in his career and came after successive victories in two $100,000 added races at Santa Anita park last winter.

FLUTTERBY WINS

In Chicago, Alberta Ranches' Flutterby charged from far back under the urging of Bill Hartack to score a two-length victory in the $22,150 Sheridan Handicap at Balmoral-Washington Park.

Jacot-Stable's Light Talk finished second, a neck in front of Mrs. Mary H. Hunter's 5-to-5 favorite, Bluescope, in the field of nine three-year-olds.

The California-bred Flutterby will be flown to New York to run in the $100,000 added Belmont Stakes, Saturday.

Flutterby, carrying top weight of 121 pounds, was timed in 1:23 1/5 and earned $13,150.

The winner, second choice in the betting, paid $7.00, $3.60 and $2.40.

SLOPPY TRACK

In New York, Make Sail, the big favorite of a chilled crowd of 38,048, overhauled Funny Bone with an eighth of a mile remaining to capture the $55,300 Top Flight Handicap on a sloppy track at Aqueduct.

At Camden, N.J., Calumet Farm's Pied d'Or won the 20th running of the $34,300 Camden Handicap at Garden State Park.

At Seattle V-Bart romped home in front Saturday in the first division of the feature race at Longacres and returned $83.60 for his backers.

The 6,829 fans on hand topped all other opening-day crowds and their bets—$250,200—also was a record for an inaugural day.

There were so many entries in the William E. Boeing Stakes—the feature event—that it was run in two divisions. Bridge Act won the second division and returned $8.80.

NO MORE SCAFFOLDS

'500' Victory Is Elusive Prize

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Bent by beer coolers and picnic baskets but shorn of traditional portable bleachers, upwands of 150,000 speed fans will struggle into the 500-acre Indianapolis motor speedway Tuesday for the Memorial Day 500-mile race.

It will be the 50th anniversary of the race.

The speedway has 136,000 seats in a sprawling mixture of modern double-decker stands, bleachers and a few pre-war wooden structures marked for razing in the near future.

But conventional seating always has been scorned by thousands of speedway fans, many of whom erected their own teetery scaffolds on truck beds in the wide open spaces inside the 2 1/4-mile brick and concrete track. Last year one of the home-made stands toppled just at the start of the race, killing two persons and injuring about 80.

"No more scaffolds," the management decreed this year. No trucks bigger than half-ton pickups will be allowed through the gates.

53 FATALITIES

Fifty-three persons have died at the speedway, including pre-500 races in 1909-10. Thirty drivers have been killed, along with 14 mechanics and nine spectators.

Tony Bettenhausen, starter in 14 Memorial Day races, became the speedway's 53rd victim May 12 when a mechanical defect caused a car to crash on a test run.

ELUSIVE PRIZE

Bettenhausen's death was a reminder that a 500 victory, and the $100,000 plus that goes with it, is one of the most elusive prizes in sports. Bettenhausen never won.

Jim Rathmann won last year in his 11th start and had to set a record average of 138.767 miles an hour. Rodger Ward won the year before on his ninth attempt, Jimmy Bryan in 1958 on his seventh, Sam Hanks in 1957 on his 12th and

V.I. ROUNDUP

'Wait-and-See' Urged for Park

NANAIMO—Harry Wipper, manager of the recreation commission here, recommended a wait-and-see policy before undertaking any further developments for Exhibition Park.

He told members of the Nanaimo Rotary Club he would not recommend major expenditure in the park until he knew what development the provincial government proposed to make on Newcastle Island.

He warned the district needed a greater population before undertaking any large-scale development.

He favored building a swimming pool, but said it should be located in Bowen Park instead of Exhibition Park.

Mr. Wipper's comments follow a year-long controversy between Vancouver Island Exhibition directors and the recreation commission over the development of the fair grounds.

The exhibition board is in favor of further developments for the park. This would include a swimming pool, gymnasium, restaurant and meeting rooms.

But Mr. Wipper feels that the commission should proceed with caution in developing the park.

PORT ALBERNI—Laurie Macfie, 19, has been selected to accompany the Elgar Choir on a European tour which includes concerts in Moscow and Leningrad.

A mezzo-soprano, she has been training for eight years. Until enrolling last year as a private pupil of G. E. Findlater, director of Elgar Choir, Miss Macfie had received all her training in Port Alberni.

The choir will leave Vancouver on June 18. The tour will include appearances in England, Paris, Hague, Rome, Geneva, Naples, Berlin, Zurich, Vienna.

NANAIMO—Firemen here assisted a high school girl retrieve her graduation gown so that she could attend a graduation dinner and dance.

The girl was accidentally locked out of her apartment at Grace and Halliburton Streets.

Firemen put a ladder to a window of the apartment and unlocked the door.

The girl got dressed and arrived just in time for the school's graduation exercises.

GALIANO ISLAND—A meeting of the Gulf Islands Joint Council here agreed to press for daily mail service for Galiano, Pender, Mayne, and Saturna Islands and a method of transport for baggage between the ferry terminals at Swartz Bay.

It also agreed to continue pressing for government ownership of the Gulf Islands Ferry Co. operations. The 18 delegates who attended the meeting also decided to make a greater effort to publicize the Gulf Islands.

ACROSS THE PROVINCE

Boy 'Back From the Dead'

(Times News Services)
NEW WESTMINSTER—A fireman used mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to bring a four-year-old boy back from the dead Sunday.

"He was dead when I started," said Charles Rennie, 35, a member of the New Westminster Fire Department. "He had changed color and there was no sign of life."

Mr. Rennie worked on Gary Merriman for 20 minutes after stripping to his shorts and plunging into the Pitt River near here to rescue the youngster.

He also saved the boy's mother, Mrs. Robert Merriman, after their 14-foot boat hit an object and threw them into the water.

Mr. Rennie and his wife and son were half a mile away from the Merriman boat when it overturned.

UNDER BOAT

"When we got there, they had been in the water for a good 10 minutes," he said.

"Mr. Merriman was yelling to me that his son (Gary) was still under the boat."

Mr. Merriman and his older son Billy, reached the safety of another passing boat while the fireman pushed Mrs. Merriman to within reach of his boat.

Then he swam under the overturned boat just as Gary started to sink.

"I just barely caught him with my toes before he went to the bottom," said Mr. Rennie.

NEARING TOP

SQUAMISH—Two university students attempting to scale the sheer rock face of a 2,100-foot mountain here are 14 climbing days from the top. Ed Cooper of Seattle and Jim Baldwin of Vancouver worked for 12 hours Sunday to advance 65 feet up Chieftain Mountain.

"It was some of the roughest rock we've faced," said Cooper.

For the next several days the pair will lash themselves together because loose rock is making it difficult to secure rock spikes they are using to make the ascent.

PEARSON ELECTED

PRINCE GEORGE—Prince George lumberman Henry Pearson was elected president of the Northern Interior Lumbermen's Association at the group's annual convention here.

Other new officers are Gerry Wilmut, vice-president, and directors John Powers, Ivan Henderson, Jim Rustad, Jake Hope, Don McKay, Gordon Jewell, Reg Hilton and Bill McRae.

FOUR INJURED

CRANBROOK—Four Cranbrook residents were taken to hospital Sunday after their car was demolished in a plunge over an embankment on the Trans-Provincial highway. Teen-ager George Harris suffered a fractured skull and the other three received less serious injuries.

HELP FOR STUDENTS

VANCOUVER—A loan fund to help Catholic students go to university will be set up by the B.C. Knights of Columbus.

Children of members of the group will qualify for loans up to $300 for study at any university.

Victoria Yacht Refloated

A grounded yacht was refloated late Saturday night after spending over 12 hours on a reef off Snuggler's Cove, Ten Mile Point.

Owned by Rudy Kirmshie, 2116 Richmond, the 26-foot sailboat went aground en route from Sidney to Esquimalt.

A combination of strong wind and fast tide was blamed for putting the boat on the rocks. Mr. Kirmshie worked all day to repair the damaged hull as the vessel sat high and dry, supported by shoring.

The next high tide after the grounding proved too low to float the boat and the owner had to stand by until shortly after midnight when the water eased her off without further damage.

Man Advised To Move Out After Stabbing

PORT ALBERNI—Russell Touchie, charged with causing bodily harm to Henry Zuschader, was given a one-year suspended sentence by Magistrate W. E. MacLeod here Saturday.

Touchie admitted stabbing Zuschader in downtown Port Alberni.

Zuschader has fully recovered from a superficial wound inflicted with a pocket knife.

The magistrate advised the accused to seek other living quarters than those he shared with the victim.

THEY'LL CAKE-WALK TONIGHT

"They can eat every crumb of it," says Mrs. Ann Norris, cafeteria director at Victoria College for 15 years and "Mom" to hundreds of students, as she checks final touches on cake that is her tribute to the first graduation class. Replica of the well-known clock tower building on the campus, cake is iced in white sugar, with pink sugar trim around windows. Grass is made of green shredded coconut. Tonight when the cake is on display at the graduation ball in Gordon Head gymnasium, it will have a small teapot perched on the top of the tower in memory of a morning a large replica of teapot actually did mysteriously appear in that position. Cake will be cut by the graduates after the home waltz. Icing was done, under Mrs. Norris' direction by Doug Brock, manager of Brodie's Bakery. (Times Photo by Irving Strickland.)

Three Feted By First Graduates

First graduation class of Victoria College honored three of its favorite staff members at a luncheon in Oak Bay Beach Hotel, prior to congregation ceremonies today.

A mace, class gift to Victoria College, and to be used at future academic ceremonies, was presented to acting principal Robert T. Wallace, honorary president of the class by Robert B. H. Smith, class president and luncheon chairman.

Class pictures were given to Mr. Wallace, to Dr. G. Reid Elliott, economics professor and class honorary vice-president, and Mrs. Ann Norris, college cafeteria director, who has made the college "caf" a second home for thousands of students in the past 15 years.

These presentations were made by Barry Gelling, Brian Sabiston and Roseann Millin, vice-president, treasurer and secretary of the class.

WALLACE SPEAKS

Prof. Wallace addressed the graduates; Frank H. Mitchell gave the valedictory; Miss Daine Whitehead read a class poem; Ian Smith, a "last will and testament," and Mrs. Rona Haddon and Anne Mayhew, gave the class prophecy.

The gathering went directly from the luncheon to Gordon Head auditorium for graduation ceremonies.

Baccalaureate service for the first Victoria College graduating class was held in Oak Bay United Church Sunday evening.

Rays of the setting sun streamed through the stained glass windows as graduates and college professors took their places in centre pews. Parents and friends filled gallery and side seats.

HICKMAN HOME

Among those present were Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, principal of University of British Columbia, and Dr. Harry Hickman, Victoria College principal, who flew home from Europe to be present at the graduation ceremonies.

Taking as theme of his sermon "Widening Horizons," Rev. Alex Calder developed his message from 1st Corinthians, Chapter 13, Verse 3: "And now abides faith, hope and love... and the greatest of these is love."

UNDERSTANDING

He asked that as the young men and women before him "stepped out into the unknown future," they remember that his message "did not mean love of science; love of medicine; love of chemistry but love of your fellow man."

"For it is only through greater understanding of our fellow men that this world will survive."

VICTORIA, B.C., MONDAY, MAY 29, 1961—PAGE 13

'Threat, Challenge' Faced By Fast-Growing College

Grauer Predicts Double Enrolment

University of B.C. Chancellor A. E. Grauer today praised Victoria College's advance and challenged it to set a high mark of excellence as a four-year liberal arts institution.

At congregation this afternoon he congratulated the college's first graduating class and conferred honorary degrees on Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, a former student now president of the University of Nevada, and Mrs. Rosalind Watson Young, one of the instructors of the college's first class in 1903.

Mr. Grauer told the audience he was delighted "to welcome each of you to this historic occasion and to express the hope that you will always remember this day with pride and satisfaction."

He said the college's first degree-granting congregation was a milestone in its development and predicted the college will double its size to 2,800 in four years.

"This prospect is both a threat and a challenge," he said. "In times of rapid expansion in education, there exists a very real danger that academic standards may begin to waver and then decline."

Mr. Grauer said the challenge will have to be met by the college council, the faculty and the entire community as it has in the past.

HIGH RECORD

Victoria College had achieved a high record of excellence and could point to hundreds of men and women across the nation who had made their start in higher education here.

Mr. Grauer suggested Victoria College will have to specialize as a four-year institution to maintain her tradition of excellence.

"I suggest that, if Victoria College is to achieve as high a reputation as a four-year liberal arts college as she won for her work as a two-year junior college, she will have to decide in what particular field she is going to make her mark."

"Scholars of international calibre are necessary if an international reputation is sought."

LOFTIEST AIMS

"The pursuit of excellence, if it is to be more than an empty phrase, demands the loftiest aims coupled with the most unremitting labor by every member of the dedicated team that makes a true university."

Mr. Grauer said industry, patience, integrity, good fellowship and a happy family spirit — "all the virtues for which Victoria College has already made a name" — will be needed.

"On this historic day, it gives me great pleasure to pay tribute to Judge J. B. Clearihue, the members of Victoria College Council and the college faculty for the inspired leadership which they are giving to this campus."

"May health, good judgment and sound objectives continue to mark their efforts for the future."

AT HER HOME

Mrs. Young's honorary degree was presented in absentia as she had to remain at home under doctor's orders.

But Mr. Grauer and members of the college council presented her with the hood and diploma of a doctor of laws at a special ceremony in her home a short time after conclusion of the congregation.

Mrs. Young received the honor in recognition of her service to the early years of the college.

A graduate of McGill University in natural science, she came to Victoria in 1896 and was the first woman graduate to be employed by the Victoria School Board. She won a master's degree through a thesis on mineral resources of Texada Island.

Mrs. Young was one of the instructors of the college's first class, in 1903, and later married Dr. Henry Esson Young who was a leading figure in the establishment of the University of B.C. She has served as president of the University Women's Club and the University Extension Association.

Dr. Armstrong was born in Victoria and educated here, attending Victoria College where he served as a president of the student council.

He continued his study of classics at UBC, where he obtained his degree, and later at Harvard where he won a doctorate of philosophy.

Dr. Armstrong became well known as a university administrator in the U.S. and now is president of the University of Nevada.

HAPPY EVEN WHILE waiting for race committee to access time difference with nearest rival, Jay Jay, in Swiftsure overall race, crew of Winsome III learned shortly after photo was taken they had edged out a 12-

KETCH DISQUALIFIED AS CREWMAN DROPPED

The Seattle ketch Tatoosh was disqualified in the Swiftsure when a crew member was taken ashore due to illness in the family.

Racing rules require that starting and finishing crews be the same.

The navy guard vessel, HMCS Settler, took C. M. Ambrose ashore when it was learned his daughter was seriously ill in Seattle.

The Tatoosh, a new boat, had been keeping well up with the leaders on what amounted to a shake-down cruise.

For a time it was thought that Troubadour, winner of the "first home" trophy, was going to lodge a protest.

Misunderstanding was caused by a misread signal flag.

Cadets Pop-Eyed Over New Cutter

Highlight of the annual inspection of the Admiral Rayner Navy League Cadet Corps at its headquarters on Robert Street, Sunday afternoon, was the arrival of a new 24-foot cutter.

The cutter, built at the Fleet School of HMCS Naden with materials purchased by the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada, was rowed in by a crew of naval apprentices coxswained by Lt.-Cmdr. F. M. Connor and officially presented to the corps in a short ceremony on the main jetty.

YOUTHS PRAISED

The inspecting officer, Cmdr. I. B. B. Morrow, commanding officer of HMCS Otawa, had nothing but praise for the youthful would-be sailors, aged between 12 and 14 years of age.

Himself an ex-Navy League cadet, he told them, "I have looked at you not only through the eyes of an inspecting officer, but as a former cadet. You are well turned out, your marching was very good and you were steady on parade."

Commenting on the corps' evolutions which included exhibitions of gunnery, musketry, communications, seamanship and boatwork he continued:

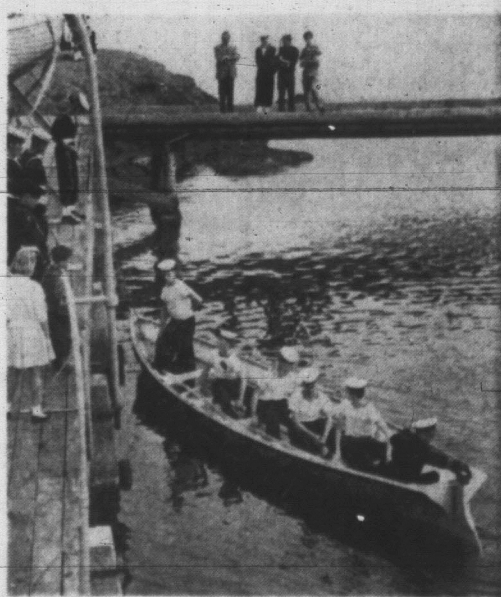

"You have shown considerable aptitude in these nautical subjects but you are also learning other useful things—discipline, a sense of honor, a feeling of pride in your corps and, above all, you are learning to become good citizens."

FIRST OF THREE

Mrs. Pat Dufour, president of the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada, sponsors and governing body of the corps, told the cadets the new cutter was the first of three being planned for the corps' use.

With Cmdr. Morrow and Mrs. Dufour in the inspecting party were Lt.-Cmdr. T. A. Dando, RCSC, commanding officer of the establishment, and Denis W. Brown, president of the Vancouver Island division of the league.

Awards for efficiency were presented to cadets representing each rate in the corps. Top cadets were PO John Lort, Leading Cadet Warren Sergeant, Able Cadet Richard Williams and Ordinary Cadet Michael Bruce.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

RCMP are still investigating the robbery at View Royal early Saturday morning when a knife-wielding bandit threatened two women.

A total of $72 was taken from the purses of Mrs. Ann Frelswek and Mrs. Kathleen Kerr, 62 Tovey Crescent, as they lay still in their beds after the threat, "Keep quiet or you'll get it."

Entry was gained through an unlocked front door.

A young city motorist was held in Royal Jubilee Hospital for one day after he suffered head injuries in a car crash Saturday night.

Larry Bishop, 18, of 863 Parklands was taken to hospital after a car driven by him struck a bus stop sign, bus stop bench and a parked trailer before crossing Fernwood near Haultain and coming to rest against a cement wall.

Damage to the car was heavy.

Canadian National Railways' Veterans' Association will hold its monthly meeting at 2 p.m. on Friday afternoon in the Knights of Pythias Hall on Cormorant Street.

Local Yard Wins Big U.S. Contract

First United States Navy contract to be let to a West Coast Canadian firm under the United States-Canada defence-sharing program has been won by Victoria Machinery Depot Co., Ltd. It was announced at the weekend by VMD president Harold Husband.

The contract is for two large marine condensers for a new type of attack missile-launching ship being built at Puget Sound Shipyard in Bremerton.

VMD's accepted bid of $250,000 for the design and construction of the condensers won out over competition from large United States engineering firms and Eastern Canadian manufacturers and was the result, Mr. Husband said, of continued efforts by his firm to obtain United States defence work.

Before the contract was awarded, the U.S. Navy and U.S. Bureau of Ships conducted an intensive three-month engineering survey of VMD facilities which have recently been enlarged for the manufacture of heat exchanger equipment for gas, oil and chemical industries in Alberta and British Columbia.

FIRST OF MANY?

Mr. Husband said the contract was a "real breakthrough" and could be the forerunner of further United States defence contract work now that VMD has been approved by the United States inspectors for subcontract work.

The two condensers to be designed by the VMD engineering staff will weigh about 60 tons each with auxiliary equipment and will provide 11,000 man-hours of highly skilled labor. About 75 per cent of the materials will be bought in Canada.

At the annual meeting of the St. Matthias Little Theatre Society, the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. F. Cameron; vice-president, Angus Smith; secretary, Mrs. E. McCulloch; treasurer, Mrs. K. Malcolm; committee members, Frank Allen, John Poulton and David Shearer.

The group hopes to present a new play in late September.

A total of $1,000 was collected in the tag sale of the women's auxiliary of the Cerebral Palsy Clinic at Royal Jubilee Hospital. Tags were sold throughout the Greater Victoria area Saturday.

A meeting of the Victoria branch of Clan MacMillan in North America will be held next Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of its secretary, Mrs. A. J. Messerschmidt, 2075 Marston.

Purpose of the gathering is to "foster unity amongst those bearing the name MacMillan," Mrs. Messerschmidt said.

Thieves got slim pickings in two city break-ins over the weekend.

About $3 in cash and $80 in unemployment stamps were taken from Midland Construction, 728 Herald. Entry was gained through a rear window sometime Saturday night.

A bottle of liquor and an electric razor were the only things missing from Doman's Lumber Company Sunday afternoon when the break-in was reported to police. Thieves had entered by the rear sliding doors and cutting a hole in the office door.

ASK THE TIMES

Q. Would you please tell me when and where Samuel de Champlain was born, and also how many voyages he made to the New World? J.R.T.

A. The noted French explorer who founded both Quebec City and Port Royal (now Annapolis Royal) was born in Brouage, on the Bay of Biscay, in 1567. He made five major voyages to the New World, as well as the annual crossings of the Atlantic made after he became Lieutenant-General of New France in 1611. He died in 1635.

U.S. Veterans Honor War Dead

Tribute to Canada's war dead was paid by 38 members of Post No. 1 American Legion, and Seattle Branch No. 32, Canadian Legion, who visited Victoria Saturday.

The U.S. veterans, guests of Britannia Branch No. 7 Canadian Legion, placed a wreath at the Victoria Cenotaph before proceeding on a tour of the city and Butchart Gardens.

They also attended a no-host luncheon and a dinner in the evening. The American group was headed by Post Commander Arthur Degginger.

NAVAL SHIP MOVEMENTS

SHOPPING GUIDE

These Amazing Ice Packs Are Useful to Have Around

By PENNY SAVER

One of the handiest gimmicks I've seen for a long time is the ice pack made of a solid jelly-like substance that's packed in a blue and red vinylite cover. Whether you want to keep food hot or cold this little item is just what you've been looking for!

Once it is frozen solid in the freezer section of your refrigerator it will keep perishable foods cold five times longer than real ice. Temperature of pack is 12 degrees colder than ice and there's no risk of mess or drips because unusual material will never turn into a liquid.

Versatile pack can also double as a hot pack, water bottle or compress with practically no effort at all. All that's needed is to let it simmer in boiling water for five to 10 minutes and it will retain heat for a surprisingly long time.

It's self-sterilizing and germ resistant. Canadian made, these sell at $1.50. One woman I met told me that she uses them in the ice chest on camping trips and they remain solid even after a whole weekend of use.

A new toy that's just arrived in a downtown store is quite likely to start a rage as did the pogo stick and winky doll. It's a novel, punching ball, made of red and white vinylite. What makes it unusual is fact that it's attached to a headpiece of elasticized tape by means of a sturdy rubber string. With headpiece in place, a youngster can have hours of fun with this toy.

Balls are inflatable and, when or if the rubber string eventually breaks, can be used as a beach ball. They sell at 69 cents.

If you would like to know where Penny shopped today give her a ring at EV 2-3131.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

She 'Came To'—Now Is Slim, Trim, and Hubby's Happy

The following is a real plug for exercise and right out of the mouth of experience. A letter from one of my readers says:

"Last year, just before my 35th birthday, I came to with a start! You know how those years are when there are young children, and I guess it had been some time since I had taken a careful look at me.

"Here is what I saw: height 5 feet, 7 inches, weight 143 pounds with a medium to small frame. My bust measured 36 inches, waist 29½ and hips 40. And my abdomen only about a half an inch less! I sew reasonably well, but with boy's shirts and little girl dresses, my wardrobe was in the same downbeat state as the rest of me.

"During Lent I took off the excess 13 pounds and started regular exercise for everything that ailed me. Many exercises were aimed at improvement in posture. As I said, that was about a year ago. I will be 40 next month. My weight is 130 pounds. My bust measures 36 or 36½, depending on which uplift bra I wear. My waist measures 27 inches (I'm still working on it) and my hips 37 inches, and I have a neat, flat tummy. My back is straight, my rear tucks under and my diaphragm pulls up without thinking about it.

"No one has ever accused me of being beautiful. My nicest birthday present already has happened—and it wasn't what I gave myself at all. It is the reaction of my husband who acts more like a newlywed than he did when he was one, 13 years ago.

"Keep pounding away, Mrs. Lowman! One by one you'll convert us all."

DEAR ABBY

Start Monkeying, Mom!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have a 15-year-old son—I am having trouble with. He keeps his bedroom door locked at all times, and does not let me in there alone to clean his room. I have to wait until he comes home from school to make his bed so he can go in with me and watch me.

He says he doesn't want anyone monkeying around in his drawers. I wouldn't look in his drawers anyway. I haven't been able to give his room a thorough cleaning in over a year. Do all teenagers go through a stage like this?

DEAR LOCKED: If you are taking "orders" from your 15-year-old son, prepare yourself for some king-sized headaches in the future. All teenagers like (and deserve) some privacy, but your son has gone overboard. It is your duty as the mother of a minor to find out what he is going to such extremes to hide.

DEAR ABBY: I will get right to the point. My boy friend and I drove over the border to Mexico to get married. We didn't have any blood tests or anything. We went to a place and signed our names in a book, and the man there asked us, ages and so forth. Then he typed out a so-called "license." That was all there was to it. It didn't seem like much of a wedding ceremony to me. I want to know if this was a legal marriage. We don't want to get married out loud yet because of financial reasons.

"MARRIED OR NOT"

Years of Extra Life for Valuable Rugs and Carpets

Do you really know why rugs and carpets wear out? Constant use does dull their beauty by covering bright colors with dirt and grime. But far worse is the grinding away of the actual fibres from which the rug is made by sharp, gritty particles deep within the pile. This can be prevented only by professional "deep cleaning" as done by experts at the CARPETORIUM.

The people at the CARPETORIUM have the knowledge, use only the finest special cleaning agents and have the best equipment in Western Canada. The cost is most reasonable and estimates are FREE. Phone the CARPETORIUM at EV 3-2861. Only the CARPETORIUM at 1210 Wharf St. can give your rugs and carpets the professional "deep cleaning" that will guarantee years of extra life. The CARPETORIUM on Wharf, Phone EV 3-2861.

DEAR MARRIED OR NOT: Take the "license" to an attorney and ask him if it is legal in this country.

DEAR ABBY: What do you do when you must attend a social function, and proud parents TRAP everyone into watching their offspring perform for two solid hours? Send help fast! Another one of those evenings is coming up, and I don't think I can stand it.

DEAR NAUSEATED RELATIVE: DEAR NAUSEATED: If you MUST attend such a function, just grin and bear the boredom.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MUSIC LOVER: Promise him anything—but give him an apple.

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, 205 Park Rd., Burlingame, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

TODAY'S RECIPE

ALMOND TEA CAKE

One-third cup shortening, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, 1½ teaspoons grated orange rind, 1 cup sifted cake flour, 1½ teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup orange juice, ¼ cup chopped or ready-diced almonds, ¼ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces, powdered sugar.

Cream shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Blend in egg and orange rind. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Blend into creamed mixture alternately with orange juice, beginning and ending with flour. Pour into greased 8-inch round pan.

Sprinkle almonds and chocolate pieces over batter. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes. When cool, sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar. Makes six to eight servings.

They Give Rural Point of View

EDMONTON (CP) — Mrs. E. J. Roylance, Greenwood, B.C., national president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, said last week national organizations and government departments looked to the institutes to express the rural point of view.

Mrs. Roylance was addressing annual convention of the Alberta Women's Institutes. She said institutes must formulate opinions that indicate the united thinking of membership in presenting an expression of rural thinking.

She added that the FWIC have been called upon to present an opinion on radio and television evaluation for the Canadian Broadcasting League and on conservation for the department of Northern Affairs and National Resources.

Mrs. Roylance said the delegate to the Canadian Broadcasting League was able to speak with authority from the results of a survey taken in several provinces.

She asked that members evaluate and record their findings as a file of provincial or national information and as a policy of action on current and future studies.

Pen Pals Meet Here After Thirty Years

Pearl shell bracelet highlighted with kookaburras, kooka bears, emus and other Australian motifs is admired by Mrs. Charles McLaughlin to the delight of the Carl Adamson who brought it to her from "down under."

By PAT DUFOUR

More than 30 years ago, two young school girls, one in Calgary and the other in Australia, adopted each other as pen pals.

Last week they met for the first time.

Mrs. Charles McLaughlin and her husband, now living in Victoria, were at the dock when Mrs. Carl Adamson and her husband came ashore with passengers from the Ss Oriana recently and the two "pals" knew each other right away.

Says fair-haired Mrs. Adamson:—

"When my husband and I landed, the four of us found each other like homing pigeons. We didn't need any 'pink roses in our laps'."

Her six-footer husband adds, "We two men have lots in common, too. After all 'we' courted, were accepted and went through married life with both the girls through their letters." Our home in Lilydale, near Melbourne is full of Canadiana. Every birthday and Christmas is highlighted with arrival of typical Canadian gifts. We feel we know Canada almost as well as our own country."

Since their arrival in Victoria, the Adamsons and their hosts "have spent most of their time talking."

HAPPY TOGETHER

"We've waited for this for such a long time and we never tire of discussing things we both like, such as making our own clothes and cooking fancy meals," says Mrs. McLaughlin.

In between talks, the visitors are taking delight in comparing Victoria with Lilydale.

Mr. Adamson is all in favor of the Canadian tendency to leave lawns and gardens unfenced. "Back home we shove fences up all over the place—this is much better."

His wife is thrilled with variety of homes and explains that theirs tend to be mainly built of brick and boards. Shingles, too, are a novelty for the Adamsons. Most Australian homes, they tell you, have terra cotta tiles on their roofs.

Jokingly they'll quip that they're "property owners" here, having shares in "the tallest totem pole in the world" at Beacon Hill Park.

Those that pride themselves that Victoria is "a little bit of Old England" may be surprised that fox hunting is popular where the Adamsons live.

"There are four hunt clubs around Melbourne and when they ride to hounds it's really something to see. The riders wear traditional rig and the hounds are the real thing!"

LIKE OUR SYSTEM

The visitors find Canadian currency easier than the sterling system, and Mr. Adamson, a bank manager by profession, will tell you that he expects to find his country changing to the decimal point system within months.

In mid-June the two couples are off on a trip that will take them to the Okanagan, Banff, Jasper and points east. Mrs. Adamson is looking forward to meeting her godson, Murray McLaughlin, for the first time when they visit Dauphin, Man., where he is stationed with the RCMP.

The visitors return to Australia in August but the four some hope to see each other again in four years. This time it will be the McLaughlins who travel and already they're making plans for the reunion in Australia.

In the meantime the two pen pals will continue their long friendship by mail.

Standard Bearers Lead National IODE Into 61st Annual Gathering

CALGARY (CP)—Delegates at the 61st annual meeting of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire settled down to business today following a weekend of solemn ceremonies which officially marked the opening of their five-day sessions.

The 56 standard bearers, led by Mrs. W. T. Haynes of Calgary, were to lead the procession at the opening session today. They paraded at a church service Sunday and at the official opening ceremony Saturday.

A few minutes after the 400 delegates passed resolutions of loyalty to the Queen and Governor-General Georges Vanier, members learned Madame Vanier had agreed to remain honorary president during her husband's tenure of office.

REPORTS ON AGENDA

Members were to hear 13 reports today.

In her presidential address at the official opening Saturday, Mrs. Peter La Robinson of Toronto said members had an outstanding opportunity to direct the thoughts of their fellowmen to a better way of life.

She said she personally believed too many parents put too much stress on university education for their children with little regard for their children's aptitudes.

She referred to a growing lack of pride in craftsmanship and urged more training for skilled workers.

This Year Sees Membership Gains; New Junior Groups

CALGARY (CP)—Membership in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire dipped slightly in 1960 but is up in 1961 with the formation of 11 new chapters, organizing secretary Mrs. Gordon Leggett of Toronto told delegates to the order's 61st annual meeting here today.

Membership dropped to 30,300 in 1960 from approximately 30,600 the previous year. Six junior members for girls under 18 years of age are included in the 11 chapters formed since January.

Mrs. Leggett said members have shown renewed interest in junior chapters. Some of the "very old chapters" have been disbanded.

In her report for the national executive committee, Mrs. H. G. Chant of Toronto told members that Princess Alice, countess of Athlone, has consented to act as the order's representative in the United Kingdom and Countess Alexander of Tunis has consented to remain the order's representative on the central council of the Victoria League.

Skirl of Pipes Welcomes Guests at Heather Tea

Three pipers, clad in dress uniforms, played Scottish airs as guests arrived at the Lansdowne Road home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Weydert, Saturday afternoon, for the heather tea arranged by the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's). Pipers were members of the Canadian Scottish Cadet Corps.

Greeting guests with the hostess were Mrs. Peter Ramsay, wife of the regiment's commanding officer, and Mrs. F. G. Carver, auxiliary president.

General convener was Mrs. A. J. Montgomery. Mrs. L. Beddington was in charge of refreshments. Assisted by Mrs. M. Biss, Mrs. K. Brown, Mrs. K. Jones, Mrs. D. Murray, Mrs. Michael Allen, Mrs. Angus Davies and the Misses Heather Murray and Marjorie Biss.

Silver candelabra held candles in graduating pink tones on the head-table. A low bowl of pinks, yellow and white iris and white lilac completed decor.

Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. L. W. Johnson, Mrs. W. Mosedale, Mrs. John Adam and Mrs. J. L. W. McLeah. They were presented with corsages of heather and pink carnations.

Pink carnation corsages were presented to Mrs. Weydert, Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. Carver. Nosegays of heather adorned the table napkins. A well-patronized home cooking stall was convayed by Mrs. Frank Knight, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Butt.

Sum of $100 was realized and will be used to augment regimental funds.

POLICE CAME TOO

Seminars Set Up For Safecrackers

VANCOUVER (CP) — William Darrell Bohart, 27, said in police court here he made his living by conducting night-time discussion groups at a Davie Street address.

"It was never a profitable business," he complained, "because the dry squad kept breaking the doors down with battering rams and sledgehammers."

Magistrate Oscar Orr asked if the place had not been a bootlegging joint.

"It was just a discussion group," said Bohart, "attended by my friends and friends of my friends."

"I have a criminal record so it's natural that most of my friends would be criminals."

The magistrate asked: "Did you have any seminars on safe-breaking?"

"I believe the subject did come up occasionally," Bohart grinned.

Magistrate Orr reserved decision until June 7 on charges against Bohart of possession of government bonds worth $2,700 which were part of the $50,000 loot in a safecracking in January, 1960.

Bohart said he accepted the bonds as collateral on loans from two men he named, but couldn't locate. He said he did not know the bonds were stolen.

OPERA STAR REFUSES TO CROSS PICKET LINE

TORONTO (CP) — One of the principal singers with the touring Metropolitan Opera Company, Glorio Tozzi, refused to cross the picket line at the Royal York Hotel Sunday night and booked a room at another hotel.

The hotel is being struck, to support demands for higher wages, by the Hotel and Club Employees Union (CLC).

Mr. Tozzi said he refused to cross the picket line because he is a union officer and a member of the American Guild of Musical Artists.

Union officials threatened earlier to picket the opera performances this week if principal singers crossed the picket lines.

TROOPS ON GUARD

Blasts Wreck Phone Relays

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Three mysterious explosions in western Utah early Sunday knocked out three unattended transcontinental telephone microwave and cable relay stations. The blasts disrupted communications throughout the western United States and on some overseas facilities.

Law enforcement and telephone company officials said sabotage with TNT was indicated. Traffic on the affected circuits was routed onto alternate lines.

The Associated Press news transmission between New York and Tokyo was affected for more than four hours. Other circuits, including those serving radio, were seriously hampered by the break.

National Guard troops were ordered out to guard 16 other telephone company stations across Utah. Nevada troops were placed on alert.

One blast shattered 10-inch thick concrete walls and the top of a microwave station three miles west of Wendover, 125 miles west of Salt Lake City.

Telephone company officials said other blasts shattered facilities at another microwave station at Cedar Mountain, about 62 miles east of Wendover and a cable repeater station at Knolls, 41 miles east of Wendover. Both are located in the Great Salt Lake desert.

"We don't know whether it's a crackpot or what," said Howard Blood, public relations representative for the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company here. But he said it definitely was a case of sabotage.

Laos Meet Resumes Only to Adjourn

GENEVA (Reuters) — The 14-nation conference on Laos, due to resume today after a five-day recess, has again been adjourned.

The date of the next session will be announced later and will take place as soon as possible, according to a joint statement issued here today by the British and Soviet delegations.

The British and Soviet co-chairmen of the conference, Malcolm MacDonald and Georgi Pushkin, failed at a three-hour meeting this morning to agree on the subjects to be discussed at this afternoon's scheduled session, authoritative sources said.

Cease Fire Agenda Set

NA MONE, Laos (Reuters) — Peace talks between warring Laotian factions made further important progress here today with final agreement on the agenda for future discussions on formation of a coalition government.

The delegates also agreed on a cease-fire agenda for discussion between the military representatives of the right-wing government and the neutralists and their pro-Communist Pathet Lao allies when the talks resume here Wednesday.

Panic at Dunkerque Charged in New Book

LONDON (Reuters) — A fight again when 1,210 ships of all types and sizes steamed across the English Channel and back.

PEASANTS DEFECTED

But some 68,111 of the British Continental Army were killed, wounded or taken prisoner as the German blitzkrieg swept across Belgium. The Netherlands and France.

Collier alleged that some French peasants who previously had welcomed the British troops with flowers turned on them at Dunkerque.

Some refused to give food to the retreating troops and, in some cases, blocked wells to prevent them getting water.

Collier also claimed that British troops had no guns with more than half the range of the German models, and many never were fired because the bolts had not arrived from England.

To get the material for his book Collier carried out six years of research.

DON'T SWAP POETRY FOR ELECTRONICS

Pearson Pleads for Liberal Arts

MONTREAL (CP) — Opposition Leader Pearson Saturday night warned the West not to concentrate too much on practical science in education at the expense of the philosophy of freedom.

He told a Sir George Williams University graduating class there is a greater danger today that the West "may be panicked into balancing our educational values too much in favor of the practical and the scientific, just because a few men in Moscow have decreed that in their country there should be a concentration on missiles and rockets."

"I hope that we will not yield to contemporary fears and pressures to overhaul our educational system to the point of scrapping scholarship for science or poetry for electronics."

"I remain profoundly skeptical of the value of any exclusive engineering or technical prescription for salvation, or even the acceptability of salvation itself on any such basis."

Test tubes and mathematical formulas were more important

Volcano-Hit Refugees 'Pitiful'

JAKARTA, Indonesia (Reuters) — Some 40,000 villagers evacuated from the Mount Merapi area of central Java after the 9,000-foot volcano began erupting nine weeks ago are living in a "pitiful condition," an army officer said here today.

The government was expected soon to move 19,000 of the evacuees to other areas.

The officer, who returned after touring the Merapi area, said that boiling clouds of gas had destroyed hundreds of cattle.

Lava flows filled riverbeds and ravines. Eleven persons were known to have died since the eruptions began.

Cubmaster Blamed For Boy's Murder

BELLEVEILLE, Ont. (CP) — A 10-year-old kidnap victim whose body was found March 22 tied to a tree near remote sideroad was strangled by his cubmaster, Thomas Warren Williamson, 41, a coroner's jury ruled Friday.

The jury said Williamson, who killed himself with a shot gun blast the day before Tommy Mcnevin's body was found, killed the boy "while in an unstable state of mind caused by financial difficulties."

The verdict said: "There is no doubt the boy's death was caused by a rope around his neck put there by the hands of Williamson."

CONSTITUTION LIFTED

S. Korea Junta Makes New Laws

SEOUL (Reuters) — The ruling military junta today temporarily suspended the constitution while it changed South Korean laws to make its coup legal.

Junta leader Lt. Gen. Do Yung-Chang announced the suspension and said "partial amendments" soon will be made to the constitution.

Chang reiterated his pledge to hand over power to "fresh and conscientious citizens" as soon as possible. But he said changes in the constitution were necessary to make the 13-day old coup legal and also disclosed the laws governing elections to the national assembly would be amended.

Chang said a referendum was one of the methods under study by the junta for amending both the constitution and the electoral laws.

Reviewing Korea's economic problems, Chang said he welcomed long-term grants or loans from friendly nations, especially the United States. The U.S. Embassy publicly opposed the coup in its early stages.

He said he hoped a West German government offer of a long-term loan, originally

SOLUTION WEDNESDAY

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—My gorgeous mother-in-law, who's been watching "Queen for a Day" regularly—and until recently that was all I knew about this phenomenal long-standing TV show.

Then I happened to be at Lake Tahoe, Nev., and saw busloads and autotours of nicely-dressed women arriving at Harrah's and stampeding past slot machines and roulette tables into the South Shore Room to try to become "Queen for a Day."

Later I saw some of those same women playing the $1 slot machines.

"But these women aren't sob sisters," I said to Bailey, who'd taken the show to Tahoe for one week.

"No, if a woman's crying or looks like she's gonna, I don't put her on," replied Bailey, whose sponsors call him "America's Prince Charming," although the TV critics call him other names.

"I usually tell them, 'Honey, don't faint till you get the loot,'" Jack said.

Corny or not, Bailey's been giving away $3,000 to $5,000 worth of merchandise and trips every week day since June, 1945, and nobody pointed a finger at him during the payola and giveaway scandals.

So he's handed out around $20,000,000 worth of happiness—or a financial facelift—in these 16 years, but Jack admits that occasionally they get nicked by a phony.

"Just three weeks ago," said Jack, sipping some coffee (he's a teetotaler nowadays), "we had a queen who'd been a queen before but had changed her name and her story."

"I didn't catch this one. But a girl in my office sort of remembered her. Then she started checking up on her."

Aren't You Ashamed Of Being Too Fat?

We all are like to be appreciated, admired and envied. Unfortunately overweight persons don't look their best, don't feel their best, and consequently don't act their best. Naturally they aren't often envied. Nothing will help you to regain a youthful feeling and get the admiring glances of your friends quicker than losing those excess pounds. Why wait a day longer to begin losing those burdensome pounds? Go to your druggist and ask for the Naran Plan. In a short time you will notice results or your money will be refunded by the manufacturer. "My self confidence has certainly taken a boost since losing 15 pounds. My friends all tell me how much better I look. Previously I felt self-conscious and ashamed of my appearance. I didn't want to meet new people or go to new places. I now feel better in more ways than one and see that I should have tried the Naran Plan a long time ago."

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy.

Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers, and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes.

The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia and of the second question a Hammond Atlas or Globe.

Address your questions to "Ask Andy," Victoria Daily Times.

Andy sends a complete, 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia to Elaine White, aged 12, of Richfield, Utah, for her question:

What Is a Hurricane's Eye?

Hurricanes tend to hatch in calm or slightly breezy. For certain spots over tropical seas, and then howl along well-worn paths curving north or south into more temperate regions. Most of the people of Utah know only what they read or hear about these raging storms, for hurricanes never blow over their state. The people of the Gulf States know and dread them. From June to November, the people of Florida are alert for hurricane warnings and some of these storms sweep up the Atlantic seaboard from the southland to New England.

The average hurricane is a furious storm, 300 to 600 miles wide. It brings pelting rain, thunder and lightning but the worst feature is its howling winds. On the Beaufort wind scale, winds up to 54 miles an hour are rated as a strong gale and winds up to 63 miles as a whole gale strong enough to uproot trees. Hurricane winds begin at 75 miles an hour and, near the centre of one of these violent storms, winds may be 130 miles an hour or more. At the very centre, however, the air is

Rain Stops, Sky Clears

At last, one side of the giant doughnut has passed overhead. Suddenly the winds and the squalling rain come to a stop and the sky above is clear, with perhaps a few feathery white cirrus clouds. The hurricane seems to be over and, if you did not know better, you might go outdoors to look sadly at the ruined buildings and uprooted trees. This could be tragic. For the calm eye passes overhead in half an hour or so.

Then the other side of the giant doughnut strikes suddenly with all its force. This time, however, the spiralling winds are reversed and come howling in from the opposite direction. A sturdy tree bent one way during the first half of the storm is bent the opposite way by the second half. Since the hurricane is a circular storm, the second half lasts as long as the first. When the calm eye passes briefly overhead, the people who live in the path of the hurricanes know that the trouble is only

'WE BAILED AND PRAYED'

Boy, 10, Survives Gale; Man Dies

By AL GRAHAM

Canadian Press Correspondent

ANTIGONISH, N.S. (CP) — Back from sea and tucked snugly in bed, little Lloyd Melong told the story Sunday night of how he prayed and was saved from the clutches of a storm that claimed his companion.

Heavy Loss By Storm On E. Coast

HALIFAX (CP) — Clear weather spread into Nova Scotia today, but more rain was in store for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island in the wake of a weekend storm and flood which took a toll of lives and property.

The storm struck Saturday with winds that exceeded 60 miles an hour. Most of Nova Scotia got an inch or more of rain.

Rampaging rivers in New Brunswick and neighboring Maine swept away bridges, washed out highways, disrupted train service, forced evacuation of homes, cut off power and put telephones out of commission.

The Saint John and Nashua River valleys in New Brunswick and Maine's Washington County suffered the worst effects. Maine had more than six inches of rain. Up to five inches were reported in some New Brunswick areas.

RIVER OVERFLOWED

The Saint John River at Fredericton rose nearly six feet. Rushing water wrecked bridges at Pennias, Durham and Woodstock Road. A 125-foot span at Marysville tottered. The Anglican Church at Durham bridge was undermined but kept from falling by the weight of its steeple.

Paul Emile Breau, 21, of Tracadie Beach, N.B., died in the Bartibog River after his car skidded on a bridge and crashed through the railing.

EICHMANN TRIAL

Jews Best Friends Top Nazis Claimed

JERUSALEM (Reuters) — A New York psychologist testified at the trial of Adolf Eichmann today that top Nazi war criminals had told him some of their best friends were Jews.

Dr. Gustav M. Gilbert, chairman of the psychology department at Long Island University, described his interviews with Germans on trial for war crimes at Nuremberg after the Second World War.

He said during his first talks with the Nazis he kept from them the fact he was a Jew because he wanted to test Nazi ideology.

"Not a single one of them knew," Gilbert said. When the psychologist later told the Nazis he was a Jew, they replied they had never had anything against Jews personally, "that this was all ideological nonsense and some of their best friends had been Jews."

RECORDED TALKS

Gilbert said he made extensive notes after every conversation with the Nazis. Because some things they said were "incredible," he had them written down as substantiation. Gilbert said he acted as interpreter at an interview between Judge Michael A. Musmanno, now a Pennsylvania Supreme Court judge, and Field Marshal Hermann Goering.

Goering, referring to extermination of Jews, said: "This of course was not any business of mine."

"It was under the jurisdiction of Heinrich Himmler, supreme Nazi SS and police chief, and his boys, Reinhard Heydrich chief of the security headquarters, Eichmann and 30 on."

LOST ALOOFNESS

Gilbert described the one occasion on which he said he lost his "professional aloofness."

"A survivor from Auschwitz had testified how children born in concentration camps were taken from their mothers and never seen again, and how in the rush season in 1944 children were thrown live on to the fires."

"This was too much even for a psychologist, and I went to Ernst Kaltenbrunner (Heydrich's successor as security chief) in the lunch break and told him: 'Do you really mean that you know nothing about this?'"

"He replied: 'No, no, I did not have anything to do with the extermination program as such. It was the others; Heydrich, Eichmann, and others from Himmler down in that chain of command, but they are all dead.'"

TWO DIE IN FALL OF TV TOWER

BRANDON (CP) — Safety precautions have been taken here against the possibility of further collapse of a television tower, part of which fell to the ground Saturday killing two steeplejacks.

Station CKX-TV said Sunday additional guywires have been installed to bolster the listing, 240-foot tower located 20 feet from the one-storey building housing the television studios.

The top half of the triangular steel tower twisted off and fell when a number of supporting "guy wires were snapped by a falling pole.

Two men working at the top of the slim, 240-foot tower were carried to their deaths.

The bodies of Laurel Filion, 34 of Steep Rock, Man., and Gilles Coate, 32, of Trois-Rivieres, Que., were pulled from the tangled wreckage.

INQUEST TODAY

Coroner Dr. Murray Matheson said that a preliminary inquest into the accident will be held today.

The pole which snapped the guy wires was being installed by the steeplejacks when it broke free.

Top Prizes to B.C. Yachts In Biggest Swiftsure Race

Thousands Witness Fine Finish

By MONTE ROBERTS

Domination of the Swiftsure ocean race by U.S. boats ended this weekend when Vancouver yachts took both the Swiftsure overall trophy and the City of Victoria trophy for first boat home.

A third Canadian boat, from Victoria, took the B Class Trophy.

It was the first time since 1931 that a Canadian boat had won either major trophy.

The last previous Canadian winner of the Swiftsure trophy was Capt. B. L. Johnson, sailing Westward Ho! in the second race of the series, which has been interrupted as an annual event only by war.

Fluky Winds

Showing the way to the field in a race featuring fluky winds was Philip Graham's 65-foot masted yawl Troubadour, Royal Vancouver Yacht Club.

Skipper Graham coaxed every knot out of winds that ranged from 20 down to zero, and brought his white-hulled craft home shortly after 9:30 p.m. in an elapsed time of 34:31.20.

The Royal Vancouver Yacht Club's BB Class sloop Winsome III, owned by C. L. Rickard and sailed by Bonar Davis, took the coveted Swiftsure Trophy—top prize on a handicap basis—with the corrected time of 26:20.50, and also collected the BB Class Cup.

Davis was given a close run for his money by Cmdr. John Reed of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, sailing the 23-foot sloop Jay Jay in the B Class. He was less than 12 minutes off Davis' pace, and had the consolation of collecting the trophy for his class. For a time it was thought Jay Jay was the over-all winner.

Easily Spotted

The AA Class trophy was taken by R. C. Coe's Sea Fever of the Seattle Yacht Club, with a corrected time of 28:38.42.

Sea Fever, a light displacement boat, easily spotted by her pale hull and high transom stern, has the second largest time allowance in the class.

A class winner was another popular and familiar Swiftsure winner—last year's trophy winner Kate II, sailed by D. E. Skinner, Seattle YC.

Skinner and Co. brought their sloop home in the corrected time of 27:00.39, less than 19 minutes behind the Swiftsure Trophy winner.

HISTORIC MOMENT

Chief Thunderbird, Baptiste Paul, 7286 W. Saanich Rd., shows five-year-old son Davey where all Indians can vote in Esquimalt-Saanich by-election today, first time full franchise has been extended in B.C. Polling station is Brentwood Women's Institute Hall. (Photo by Halkett.)

Heavy Poll Expected

Good weather—good turnout.

That was the indication in Esquimalt-Saanich this morning as polling stations opened for the federal by-election.

Polls were "fairly busy" according to an official who toured the riding.

FIRST FOR INDIANS

Among the 40,926 eligible voters are several hundred Indians, able to cast ballots here in a federal election for the first time, following amendments to the Elections and Indian acts in March, 1960.

However, response has been slow.

By 11 a.m. four Indians had voted at Saanichton Agricultural Hall, polling station for about 60 on nearby reserves.

Chief Thunderbird, Baptiste Paul, of the Tsartlip Band summed up the Indians' reaction to franchise: "They're skeptical."

Because most B.C. Indians never signed a treaty, they have not received the same benefits as those of other provinces. The Native Council of Chiefs wrote to Prime Minister Diefenbaker April 10 asking for a conference in Victoria on Indian rights.

"SMOKE SIGNALS"

"We sent smoke signals to Diefenbaker, but no answer," quipped the chief.

Results of the five-way by-election contest should be known shortly before 10 p.m., says returning officer S. S. Penny.

The 174 polls close at 8 p.m. After a brief flurry at 9 a.m. poll opening, a steady trickle of voters was recorded.

Some of the bigger urban polls, such as Lake Hill Women's Institute Hall on Quadra, were quite busy. Biggest turnout was expected after 5 p.m. when men return from work.

28,710 VOTED

In the last federal general election, 1958, the turnout was 28,710.

At three other ridings in Eastern Canada, light voting was reported. About 60,000 voters in Kings, P.E.I., Leeds, Ont., and Restigouche-Madawaska, N.B., will decide straight two-party fights between Liberals and Conservatives.

PHONE EV 2-3131 ON BYELECTION

Due to the high interest in the Esquimalt-Saanich federal by-election, the Times tonight will provide a telephone service on the results, beginning at 8 p.m. At that hour results will become public in B.C. on the three eastern by-elections. Election laws prevent prior release. The phone number is EV 2-3131.

'Hanging' Law Study Urged By Liberals

OTTAWA (CP)—Three Liberal members of Parliament urged today that the government's capital punishment bill be withdrawn for study by experts.

Lawyer Judy LaMarsh, member for Niagara Falls, said she is no great authority on murder cases but it seemed that a number of gaps exist in the proposed legislation relating the death penalty by hanging for "capital" murder cases involving deliberate slayings or those during crimes of violence.

Sentence of life imprisonment is mandatory for "non-capital" murders and juveniles under 18 convicted of capital murder.

J. P. Deschatelets, French-speaking lawyer from Montreal, and lawyer Paul Martin, Essex East, took the same line.

OVER THE LINE AT NIGHTFALL

Thousands watched as Canadian entry Troubadour ghosted home in gathering dusk at end of Swiftsure ocean yacht race shortly after 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

Royal Vancouver Yacht Club entry was first Canadian to win City of Victoria Trophy for first yacht to finish. (See also page 13.)

WELL! WHO KNOWS?

OTTAWA (CP) — Alexis Caron (L-Hull), an insurance broker, was told by Speaker Roland Michener in the Commons today he should consult a lawyer for an answer to the question he asked Trade Minister Hees, a businessman.

Mr. Caron asked what penalty is provided for anyone who refuses to answer questions in next month's census.

Mr. Hees said if Mr. Caron would indicate what census question he was referring to he might be able to answer the question.

Mr. Caron said he meant any of the questions to be asked in the census.

Mr. Michener said Mr. Caron appeared to be seeking a legal opinion and should consult a lawyer.

Mr. Caron said that if Mr. Hees could not give the answer he was the one who should consult a lawyer.

Rain Quells B.C. Blazes

PRINCE GEORGE (CP) — All fires were under control in the Prince George forest district today after a weekend of rain and cool weather.

Half an inch of rain damped the huge blaze covering 27,000 acres at Stewart Lake, 40 miles west of here, and a 6,000-acre fire at nearby Scott Lake.

Rain also hit the Johnson Creek fire in the Chetwynd area 130 miles north of Prince George.

Four Per Hour

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic deaths averaged more than four an hour at the half-way mark of the extended U.S. Memorial Day weekend today.

By 2 p.m. EDT the traffic death toll stood at 295. There also were 24 accidental deaths from boating, 37 drownings and 57 miscellaneous deaths to put the over-all total at 409.

CONGREGATION SPEAKER:

'Carry On Tradition Of the Liberal Arts'

Victoria College today was urged to carry forward the great tradition of the liberal arts as a vital element of modern life.

The appeal was made by Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, president of the University of Nevada, and keynote speaker at the college's first degree-granting ceremony.

He spoke to the audience at the Gordon Head campus gymnasium which came to witness the college's first graduating class of 33 students receive their degrees on their own campus.

VICTORIAN

Dr. Armstrong, a native Victorian who attended the college as a student, received an honorary doctorate of laws in recognition of his achievements as a university administrator.

He said all persons connected with the college and the community were proud of the institution's coming-of-age represented in the degree-granting ceremony.

"I look back from the perspective of more than 30 years, upon my two years at Victoria College as the most important and valuable years of my life, because it was here that I first became fully aware of the sovereignty of the realm of intellect," he said.

MORE FORTUNATE

"I count you young men and women who graduate today as even more fortunate, because you have had the experience of four years in this great tradition."

"I hope that you will truly make the most of the intellectual tools, skills and insights which have been given to you here."

NEGRO STRIKE MOSTLY IGNORED

By HENDERSON GALL

JOHANNESBURG (Reuters) — At least 50 per cent of Johannesburg's 250,000 Negro workers today staged a work boycott but the rest of the nation's Negro work force largely ignored a "stay-at-home" strike call.

The centre of the strike in Johannesburg was the shanty town of Alexandra, which houses about 50,000 Negroes in tin-shack squalor, and the heavily-populated Negro townships in the southwestern part of the city.

The percentage of work absenteeism from these areas was based on information from the Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce which polled employers in the district.

Reports from other parts of the country, however, indicated the anti-government strike appeared to be a failure, with Negro work attendance at near-normal.

Many of the Negro workers formed groups in their districts and carried sticks to protect themselves against strike agitators. They were also provided with a heavy police guard.

The Witwatersrand police chief, Col. John Olivier, described the situation as "almost normal for a Monday."

Rebel General Swoons at Trial

PARIS (Reuters) — Ex-general Andre Zeller, 63, collapsed twice today while testifying at his trial on charges of leading last month's abortive army coup in Algeria.

He was led away and the session of the court was suspended.

Zeller, one-time French army chief of staff, and former General Maurice Challe went on trial together before a special military court.

Both face possible death sentences if convicted of leading the troop uprising against President de Gaulle's Algerian self-determination program.

Challe, former commander-in-chief of French forces in Algeria, had testified first.

Challe and Zeller are charged with taking over a military command without legitimate reasons and organizing an insurrectional movement.

In his testimony today Challe said he considered the safety of the West was at stake in Algeria.

He charged that the Moslem nationalist leaders of the "Algerian" provisional government were "already linked to Moscow and Peking."

"We did not want any bloodshed or to fire on our comrades," Challe added.

200 Soldiers Form Escort For Tshombe

LEOPOLDVILLE (Reuters) — Self-styled President Moise Tshombe of the Congo's Katanga province, smiling and appearing in good health, was brought to Leopoldville today by river steamer from Coquilhatville where he had been in seclusion for weeks.

No soldiers guarded him as he stepped from the boat at Leopoldville port. But he and his foreign minister, Evariste Kimba, had an escort of 200 troops for the drive to a paracommando camp six miles outside Leopoldville.

Col. Michael Kiembe, chief of staff of the Leopoldville forces, and security chief Victor Ndeka were at the dock to greet Tshombe as he walked down the gangplank.

Looking neat in a dark grey suit, Tshombe shook hands with a Congolese officer, waved to the crowd of several hundred, and climbed into the black limousine awaiting him.

RAF Crash Kills 13

SINGAPORE (Reuters) — An RAF transport plane crashed and burst into flames here today, killing all 13 persons aboard.

Angolans Beaten Off

LISBON, Portugal (Reuters) — Heavily-armed Angolan insurgents were beaten off with heavy losses in a recent attack on the northern Angolan village of Sanza Pombo, Lusitania news agency reported today.

Home-Rusk Talks Due

LONDON (Reuters) — Foreign Secretary Lord Home will visit the United States June 13 to 16 for talks with State Secretary Dean Rusk and United Nations secretary-general Dag Hammarskjold. It was announced here today.

Sky Jumper Falls to Death

—Wife Unwilling Witness

CLOVERDALE, B.C. (CP) — Mrs. Catherine Riedl had consented for the first time to watch her husband, Bill, make a parachute jump.

As she watched from a field near Fry's Corner, two miles north of this community about 25 miles south of Vancouver, her husband plunged 2,000 feet to his death.

Bill Riedl, 43, president of B.C. Hardwood and Millwork Ltd. and a member of the B.C. Parachutists and Sky Diving Club, died when his parachute failed to open.

His wife and close friend, architect Frederick Brodie, were among those watching from the ground when Riedl plunged to earth less than 100 yards from them.

"I ran over to see who it was," said Brodie. "I recognized his name on the helmet. It was terrible. His wife saw the whole thing."

Brodie said Mrs. Riedl didn't want her husband to jump. "He talked her into coming and seeing him today. Even when he was up in the plane she was saying he was foolish."

Riedl's main parachute didn't function when he jumped from 2,000 feet. He tried his emergency chute and it came free, but too late to catch the air before he hit the earth.

A few minutes earlier, Paul Spak, 35, of Vancouver, suffered a broken leg when he made an improper landing during the same jumping practice.

THEY'LL CAKE-WALK TONIGHT

"They can eat every crumb of it," says Mrs. Ann Norris, cafeteria director at Victoria College for 15 years and "Mom" to hundreds of students, as she checks final touches on cake that is her tribute to the first graduation class. Replica of the well-known clock tower building on the campus, cake is iced in white sugar, with pink sugar trim around windows. Grass is made of green shredded coconut. Tonight when the cake is on display at the graduation ball in Gordon Head gymnasium, it will have a small teapot perched on the top of the tower in memory of a morning a large replica of teapot actually did mysteriously appear in that position. Cake will be cut by the graduates after the home walk. Icing was done, under Mrs. Norris' direction by Doug Brock, manager of Brodie's Bakery.

Three Feted By First Graduates

First graduation class of Victoria College honored three of its favorite staff members at a luncheon in Oak Bay Beach Hotel, prior to graduation ceremonies today.

A mace, class gift to Victoria College, and to be used at future academic ceremonies, was presented to acting principal Robert T. Wallace, honorary president of the class by Robert B. H. Smith, class president and luncheon chairman.

Class pictures were given to Mr. Wallace, to Dr. G. Reid Elliott, economics professor and class honorary vice-president, and Mrs. Ann Norris, college cafeteria director, who has made the college "cat" a second home for thousands of students in the past 15 years.

These presentations were made by Barry Gelling, Brian Sabiston and Roseann Millin, vice-president, treasurer and secretary of the class.

WALLACE SPEAKS
Prof. Wallace addressed the graduates: Frank H. Mitchell gave the valedictory; Miss Daine Whitehead read a class poem; Ian Smith, a "last will and testament," and Mrs. Rona Haddon and Anne Mayhew, gave the class prophecy.

The gathering went directly from the luncheon to Gordon Head auditorium for graduation ceremonies.

Baccalaureate service for the first Victoria College graduating class was held in Oak Bay United Church Sunday evening.

Beams of the setting sun streamed through the stained glass windows as graduates and college professors took their places in centre pews. Parents and friends filled gallery and side seats.

HICKMAN HOME
Among those present were Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, principal of University of British Columbia, and Dr. Harry Hickman, Victoria College principal, who flew home from Europe to be present at the graduation ceremonies.

Taking as theme of his sermon "Widening Horizons," Rev. Alex Calder developed his message from 1st Corinthians, Chapter 13, Verse 3: "And now abides faith, hope and love . . . and the greatest of these is love."

UNDERSTANDING
He asked that as the young men and women before him "stepped out into the unknown future" they remember that his message "did not mean love of science; love of medicine; love of chemistry but love of your fellow man."

"For it is only through greater understanding of our fellow men that this world will survive."

'Threat, Challenge' Faced By Fast-Growing College

Grauer Predicts Double Enrolment

University of B.C. Chancellor A. E. Grauer today praised Victoria College's advance and challenged it to set a high mark of excellence as a four-year liberal arts institution.

At congregation this afternoon he congratulated the college's first graduating class and conferred honorary degrees on Dr. Charles J. Armstrong, a former student now president of the University of Nevada, and Mrs. Rosalind Watson-Young, one of the instructors of the college's first class in 1903.

Mr. Grauer told the audience he was delighted "to welcome each of you to this historic occasion and to express the hope that you will always remember this day with pride and satisfaction."

He said the college's first degree-granting congregation was a milestone in its development and predicted the college will double its size to 2,800 in four years.

"This prospect is both a threat and a challenge," he said. "In times of rapid expansion in education, there exists a very real danger that academic standards may begin to waver and then decline."

Mr. Grauer said the challenge will have to be met by the college council, the faculty and the entire community as it has in the past.

HIGH RECORD
Victoria College had achieved a high record of excellence and could point to hundreds of men and women across the nation who had made their start in higher education here.

Mr. Grauer suggested Victoria College will have to specialize as a four-year institution to maintain her tradition of excellence.

"I suggest that if Victoria College is to achieve as high a reputation as a four-year liberal arts college as she won for her work as a two-year junior college, she will have to decide in what particular field she is going to make her mark."

LOFTIEST AIMS
"The pursuit of excellence, if it is to be more than an empty phrase, demands the loftiest aims coupled with the most unremitting labor by every member of the dedicated team that makes a true university."

Mr. Grauer said industry, patience, integrity, good fellowship and a happy family spirit — "all the virtues for which Victoria College has already made a name" — will be needed.

"On this historic day, it gives me great pleasure to pay tribute to Judge J. B. Clearhugh, the members of Victoria College Council and the college faculty for the inspired leadership which they are giving to this campus."

"May health, good judgment and sound objectives continue to mark their efforts for the future."

AT HER HOME
Mrs. Young's honorary degree was presented in absentia as she had to remain at home under doctor's orders. But Mr. Grauer and members of the college council presented her with the hood and diploma of a doctor of laws at a special ceremony in her home a short time after conclusion of the congregation.

Mrs. Young received the honor in recognition of her service to the early years of the college.

A graduate of McGill University in natural science, she came to Victoria in 1896 and was the first woman graduate to be employed by the Victoria School Board. She won a master's degree through a thesis on mineral resources of Texada Island.

Local Yard Wins Big U.S. Contract

First United States Navy contract to be let to a West Coast Canadian firm under the United States-Canada defence-sharing program has been won by Victoria Machinery Depot Co., Ltd. It was announced at the weekend by VMD president Harold Husband.

The contract is for two large marine condensers for a new type of attack missile-launching ship being built at Puget Sound Shipyard in Bremerton. VMD's accepted bid of $250,000 for the design and construction of the condensers won out over competition from larger United States engineering firms and Eastern Canadian manufacturers and was the result, Mr. Husband said, of continued efforts by his firm to obtain United States defence work.

Before the contract was awarded, the U.S. Navy and U.S. Bureau of Ships conducted an intensive three-month engineering survey of VMD facilities which have recently been enlarged for the manufacture of heat exchanger equipment for gas, oil and chemical industries in Alberta and British Columbia.

FIRST OF MANY?
Mr. Husband said the contract was a "real breakthrough" and could be the forerunner of further United States defence contract work now that VMD has been approved by the United States inspectors for subcontract work.

The two condensers to be designed by the VMD engineering staff will weigh about 60 tons each with auxiliary equipment and will provide 11,000 man-hours of highly skilled labor. About 75 per cent of the materials will be bought in Canada.

ASK THE TIMES

Q. Would you please tell me when and where Samuel de Champlain was born, and also how many voyages he made to the New World? J.R.T.

A. The noted French explorer who founded both Quebec City and Port Royal (now Annapolis Royal) was born in Brouage, on the Bay of Biscay, in 1567. He made five major voyages to the New World, as well as the annual crossings of the Atlantic made after he became Lieutenant-General of New France in 1611. He died in 1635.

U.S. Veterans Honor War Dead

Tribute to Canada's war dead was paid by 38 members of Post No. 1, American Legion, and Seattle Branch No. 32, Canadian Legion, who visited Victoria Saturday.

The U.S. veterans, guests of Britannia Branch No. 7 Canadian Legion, placed a wreath at the Victoria Cenotaph before proceeding on a tour of the city and Butchart Gardens.

They also attended a no-host luncheon and a dinner in the evening. The American group was headed by Post Commander Arthur Degginger.

GEAR STOLEN FROM ENTRY IN BIG RACE

A possible patriotic, but misguided thief made things difficult for the visiting United States yacht Dorade in the Swiftsure race.

Her owner, J. F. Eddy of Seattle, told police someone had taken two winch handles and six tackle blocks while the craft lay at a wharf in the Inner Harbor Friday night.

Total value of the missing gear is said to be $240.

Injured Carried By Saanich 'Shuttle Service'
Minor injuries to five residents gave Saanich Police a busy time Saturday shuttling back and forth to hospital.

Lawrence Stroud, 488 Obed, gashed his leg while cutting grass with a sickle; William MacLean, 38, of 3260 Admirals was cut on the face by a boat trailer winch which kicked back; Monty Coleman, 8, of 5470 Alderly suffered a cut knee.

Billy Walker, 10, of 421 Vincent turned his bicycle into the path of a car driven by Leona Fial, 3009 Colquitz, and Roland Rechart, 4, of 4999 Cordova Bay ran into the side of a car driven by Frederick Sifton, 4823 Cordova Bay.

Little Fuss On Tillikum Anniversary

By HUMPHRY DAVY

Saturday was the 60th anniversary of a voyage which has become one of the classics in seafaring history.

But there was no fanfare, no bands and no speeches at Victoria's unique monument — "The Tillikum" — a 22-foot dug-out canoe at Thunderbird Park.

The anniversary of the voyage of the Tillikum passed almost unnoticed.

It was 60 years ago Saturday that two men, Capt. John Voss and Norman Luxton started on their epic voyage to sail around the world in a boat built by Indians at a cost of $75.

TOOK SICK
Mr. Luxton never finished the trip. He fell sick at Manahiki, an island south of the equator, and had to leave the trip, but Capt. Voss proceeded on to Australia where he signed on a new band and continued the voyage.

The dugout canoe after running into many storms finally sailed up the Thames on Sept. 5, 1905, where Voss was given a hero's welcome.

'BEAT THE SEA'
Capt. Voss' objective in making the trip was simply to "beat the sea." He wanted to prove to his own satisfaction that man was master of the elements.

The sea waged war on him across the Pacific, the Indian and Atlantic Oceans. He won, but it took him three years, three months and 12 days to do it.

Voss died several years ago in California at the age of 77. His original partner, Mr. Luxton, is still active at 85 in Banff, Alta.

KETCH DISQUALIFIED AS CREWMAN DROPPED

The Seattle ketch Tatoosh was disqualified in the Swiftsure when a crew member was taken ashore due to illness in the family.

Racing rules require that starting and finishing crews be the same.

The navy guard vessel, HMCS Settler, took C. M. Ambrose ashore when it was learned his daughter was seriously ill in Seattle.

The Tatoosh, a new boat, had been keeping well up with the leaders on what amounted to a shake-down cruise.

For a time it was thought that Troubadour, winner of the "first home" trophy, was going to lodge a protest.

Misunderstanding was caused by a misread signal flag.

Cadets Pop-Eyed Over New Cutter

Highlight of the annual inspection of the Admiral Rayner Navy League Cadet Corps at its headquarters on Robert Street, Sunday afternoon, was the arrival of a new 24-foot cutter.

The cutter, built at the Fleet School of HMCS Naden with materials purchased by the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada, was rowed in by a crew of naval apprentices coxswained by Lt.-Cmdr. F. M. Connor and officially presented to the corps in a short ceremony on the main jetty.

YOUTHS PRAISED
The inspecting officer, Cmdr. I. B. B. Morrow, commanding officer of HMCS Ottawa, had nothing but praise for the youthful would-be sailors, aged between 12 and 14 years of age.

Himself an ex-Navy League cadet, he told them, "I have looked at you not only through the eyes of an inspecting officer, but as a former cadet. You are well turned out, your marching was very good and you were steady on parade."

Commenting on the corps' evolutions which included exhibitions of gunnery, musketry, communications, seamanship and boatwork he continued:

"You have shown considerable aptitude in these nautical subjects but you are also learning other useful things — discipline, a sense of honor, a feeling of pride in your corps and, above all, you are learning to become good citizens."

FIRST OF THREE

Mrs. Pat Dufour, president of the Victoria Branch of the Navy League of Canada, sponsors and governing body of the corps, told the cadets the new cutter was the first of three being planned for the corps' use.

With Cmdr. Morrow and Mrs. Dufour in the inspecting party were Lt.-Cmdr. T. A. Dando, RCSC, commanding officer of the establishment, and Denis W. Brown, president of the Vancouver Island division of the league.

FINAL BULLETINS

Reports Sought on Unidentified Sub

OTTAWA (CP) — Defence Minister Harkness said today he will ask for a report from his department about an unidentified submarine reported to have been spotted by Newfoundland fishermen recently.

Chesley W. Carter (L-Burin-Burgeo) said the sub had been sighted off Burgeo, Nfld. Mr. Harkness said he had not heard of it but would get a report.

Youth Accused of Brother's Murder

LETHBRIDGE (CP) — Ronald Pitt, 19, was charged with murder today in connection with the stabbing of his 13-year-old brother, Lawrence Alexander Pitt.

The younger boy died in hospital Sunday after doctors had spent several hours trying to save his life. The knife wound was suffered Friday.

MLA Loses 3 Toes in Mower Mishap

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — Gordon Dowling, CCF MLA for Burnaby, lost three toes of his left foot in a weekend power mower accident it was reported today.

Mr. Dowling was mowing his sloping lawn Saturday when he slipped on a rock and his foot went under the mower. He is reported in good condition in hospital here.

Tidal Wave, Tremors Rock Chile

SANTIGO, Chile (Reuters) — A tidal wave hit southern Chile today as a severe storm damaged several areas and tremors were felt in two cities.

NEGRO STRIKE MOSTLY IGNORED

By HENDERSON GALL

JOHANNESBURG (Reuters) — At least 50 per cent of Johannesburg's 250,000 Negro workers today staged a work boycott but the rest of the nation's Negro work force largely ignored a "stay-at-home" strike call.

The centre of the strike in Johannesburg was the shanty town of Alcedra, which houses about 50,000 Negroes in tin-shack squalor, and the heavily-populated Negro townships in the southwestern part of the city.

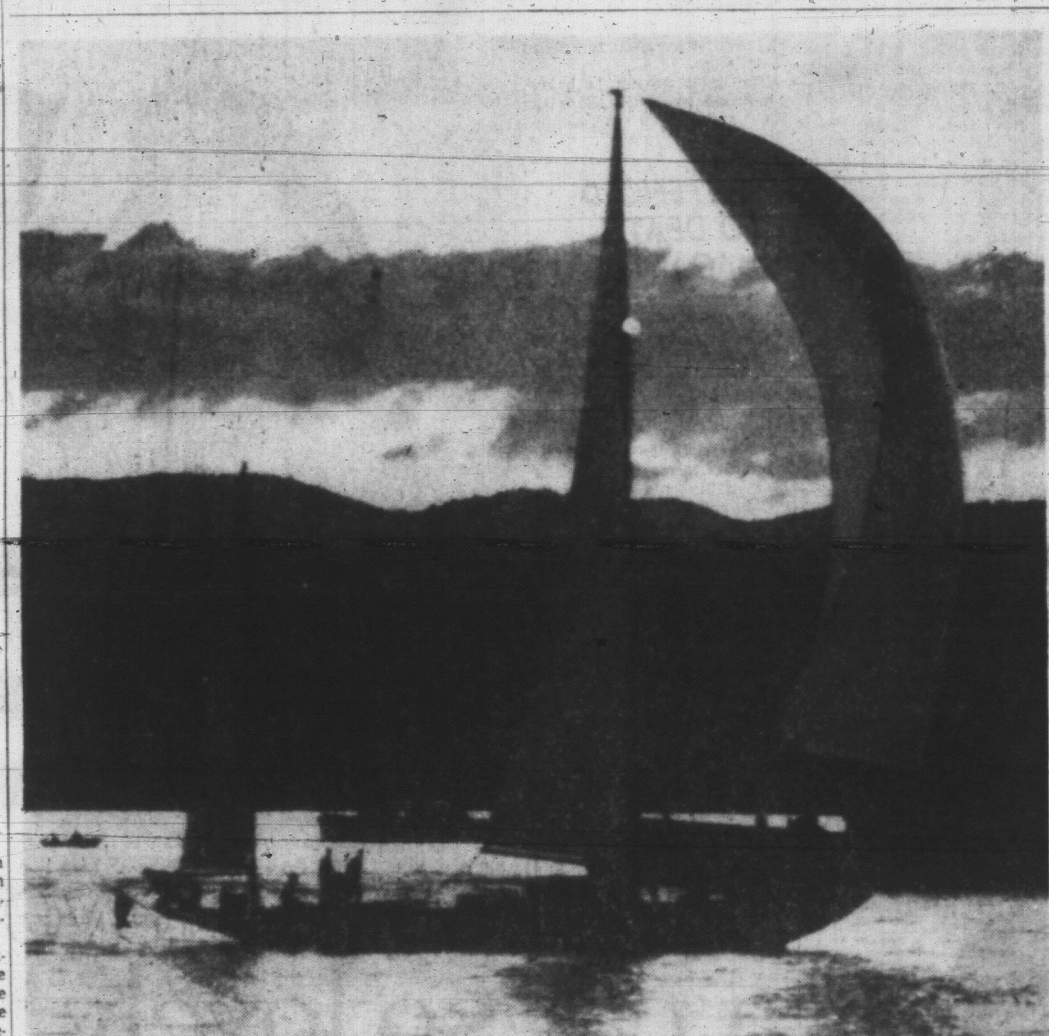

The percentage of work absenteeism from these areas was based on information from the Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce which polled employers in the district.

Reports from other parts of the country, however, indicated the anti-government strike appeared to be a failure, with Negro work attendance at near-normal.

Many of the Negro workers formed groups in their districts and carried sticks to protect themselves against strike agitators. They were also provided with a heavy police guard.

OVER THE LINE AT NIGHTFALL

Top Honors to B.C. Yachts In Biggest Swiftsure Race

By MONTE ROBERTS

Domination of the Swiftsure ocean race by U.S. boats ended this weekend when Vancouver yachts took both the Swiftsure overall trophy and the City of Victoria trophy for first boat home.

A third Canadian boat, from Victoria, took the B Class Trophy.

It was the first time since 1931 that a Canadian boat had won either major trophy.

The last previous Canadian winner of the Swiftsure trophy was Capt. B. L. Johnson, sailing Westward Ho! in the second race of the series which has been interrupted as an annual event only by war.

The Royal Vancouver Yacht Club's BB Class sloop Winsome III, owned by C. L. Rickard and sailed by Bonar Davis, took the coveted Swiftsure Trophy, top prize on a handicap basis, with the corrected time of 26:20.50, and also collected the BB Class Cup.

Davis was given a close run for his money by Cmdr. John Reed of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, sailing the 33-foot sloop Jay Jay in the B Class. He was less than 12 minutes off Davis' pace, and had the

Police Check Party Protests

By FRANK RUTTER
Times Legislative Reporter

Complaints about parties distributing campaign literature today threw the Esquimalt-Saanich byelection into a tizzy.

At press time Saanich and Central Saanich police were investigating.

All four major parties contesting the byelection had made some form of complaint.

The chief one was that New Party workers were distributing cards saying "Vote Hamilton".

Said Saanich Police Chief W. A. Pearson: "As far as I am concerned it's a legal battle. It's a matter of interpretation of the Elections Act."

However, Mr. Pearson said Saanich police will still check out all complaints, take names and addresses and samples for investigation.

The act says that no party may broadcast, give favors, distribute flags, bunting, but it does not mention literature.

Mr. Pearson pointed out. Liberal officials agreed.

"We don't think it is illegal," said Allan Cox, campaign manager for candidate David Groos.

"But we have never considered it's the thing to do on election day."

Mr. Cox said the Liberals had complained, first to the returning officer, S. S. Penny, and later to Saanich police, about location of the Conservative party headquarters on Quadra, opposite Cloverdale School, a polling place.

They also received reports about the New Party distributing cards in the Middleton and Cooper Streets area.

Nothing illegal.

Mrs. Laura Albers, campaign manager for New Party candidate Glen Hamilton said as far as she knew the party was doing nothing illegal.

"No pamphlets are going out," she said.

But New Party workers were going from door to door to get the vote out, and providing transportation to the polls.

Mrs. Albers said the New Party had filed a complaint about Conservative workers soliciting votes within a polling station. It was reported to police by scrutineers, she said.

A Conservative campaign official said he had heard at least six complaints about New Party literature.

The Tories advised individuals to lay their own complaints with police, he said.

They were all in Central and North Saanich.

Social Credit officials said they, too, had received complaints about the New Party.

Some of the incidents in Saanich.

Meanwhile, polls were "fairly busy" according to an official who toured the riding.

A good turnout of voters is indicated.

—Wife Unwilling Witness

CLOVERDALE, B.C. (CP) — Club, died when his parachute failed to open.

His wife and close friend architect Frederick Brodie were among those watching from the ground when Riedl plunged to earth less than 100 yards from them.

"I ran over to see who it was," said Brodie. "I recognized his name on the helmet. It was terrible. His wife saw the whole thing."

Brodie said Mrs. Riedl didn't want her husband to jump. He talked her into coming and seeing him today. E... when he was up in the plane she was saying he was foolish.

Riedl's main parachute didn't function when he jumped from 2,000 feet. He tried his emergency chute and it came free, but too late to catch the air before he hit the earth.

A few minutes earlier, Paul Spak, 35, of Vancouver, suffered a broken leg when he made an improper landing during the same jumping practice.

Rebel General Swoons at Trial

PARIS (Reuters) — Ex-general Andre Zeller, 63, collapsed twice today while testifying at his trial on charges of leading last month's abortive army coup in Algeria.

'Hanging' Law Study Urged By Liberals

OTTAWA (CP) — Three Liberal members of Parliament urged today that the government's capital punishment bill be withdrawn for study by experts.

Lawyer Judy LaMarsh, member for Niagara Falls, said she is no great authority on murder cases but it seemed that a number of gaps exist in the proposed legislation retaining the death penalty by hanging for "capital" murder cases involving deliberate slayings or those during crimes of violence.

Sentence of life imprisonment is mandatory for "non-capital" murders and juveniles under 18 convicted of capital murder.

J. P. Deschatelets, French-speaking lawyer from Montreal, Maisonnette-Rosemont, and lawyer Paul Martin, Essex East, took the same line.

GOVERNMENT PLANS 'GOOFBALL' LAWS

OTTAWA (CP) — The government introduced in the Commons today a new measure aimed at controlling drugs commonly known as "goofballs."

The measure, an amendment to the Food and Drugs Act provides for prison sentences from 18 months to 10 years for any person convicted of illegal trafficking in or in possession of such drugs.

Boy 'Back From the Dead'

(Times News Services) NEW WESTMINSTER — A fireman used mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to bring a four-year-old boy back from the dead Sunday.

"He was dead when I started," said Charles Rennie, 35, a member of the New Westminster Fire Department. "He had changed color and there was no sign of life."

Mr. Rennie worked on Gary Merriman for 20 minutes after stripping to his shorts and plunging into the Pitt River near here to rescue the youngster.

He also saved the boy's mother, Mrs. Robert Merriman, after their 14-foot boat hit an object and threw them into the water.

Mr. Rennie and his wife and son were half a mile away from the Merriman boat when it overturned.

UNDER BOAT

"When we got there, they had been in the water for a good 10 minutes," he said. "Mr. Merriman was yelling to me that his son (Gary) was still under the boat."

Mr. Merriman and his older son Billy, reached the safety of another passing boat while the fireman pushed Mrs. Merriman to within reach of his boat.

Then he swam under the overturned boat just as Gary started to sink.

"I just barely caught him with my toes before he went to the bottom," said Mr. Rennie.

WELL! WHO KNOWS?

OTTAWA (CP) — Alexis Caron (L-Hull), an insurance broker, was told by Speaker Roland Michener in the Commons today he should consult a lawyer for an answer to the question he asked Trade Minister Hees, a businessman.

Mr. Caron asked what penalty is provided for anyone who refuses to answer questions in next month's census. Mr. Hees said if Mr. Caron would indicate what census question he was referring to he might be able to answer the question.

Mr. Caron said he meant any of the questions to be asked in the census.

Mr. Michener said Mr. Caron appeared to be seeking a legal opinion and should consult a lawyer.

Mr. Caron said that if Mr. Hees could not give the answer he was the one who should consult a lawyer.

Rain Quells B.C. Blazes

PRINCE GEORGE (CP) — All fires were under control in the Prince George forest district today after a weekend of rain and cool weather.

200 Soldiers Form Escort For Tshombe

LEOPOLDVILLE (Reuters) — Self-styled President Moise Tshombe of the Congo's Katanga province, smiling and appearing in good health, was brought to Leopoldville today by river steamship from Coquilhatville where he was interned four weeks ago.

No soldiers guarded him as he stepped from the boat at Leopoldville port. But he and his foreign minister, Evariste Kimba, had an escort of 200 troops for the drive to a paracommando camp six miles outside Leopoldville.

Col. Michael Kiembe, chief of staff of the Leopoldville forces, and security chief Victor Ndeka, were at the dock to greet Tshombe as he walked down the gangplank.

Looking neat in a dark grey suit, Tshombe shook hands with a Congolese officer, waved to the crowd of several hundred and climbed into the black limousine awaiting him.

About 350,000 persons have emigrated from Canada to the U.S. in the last 10 years.
